Plan To Increase Unit's Production

MANISTIQUE — Plans to increase the production of Manistique Pulp & Paper Co.'s plant at Manistique by more than 30 per cent were announced today by Frank S. Hoholik, president and chief executive officer. The announcement signals the final two stages of a five-year improvement program.

"The first phase of this segment, scheduled to begin immediately, will expand the capacity of our paper mill by modernizing present facilities and installing new equipment," Hoholik said.

"Engineering studies of the expansion planned for phase two are currently underway. In that part of the program, the mill's capacity will again be substantially increased. It will also involve additional investment in equipment for producing corrugated products," he added.

"The new expansion program coupled with improvements made over the last five years will complete our modernization and expansion, making Manistique one of the most modern mills in the United States," Hoholik said.

Declines Comment

The announcement was made in a press release under Hoholik's name issued by Field Enterprises, Inc., of Chicago, parent firm of Manistique Pulp & Paper Co., and also was expected to be made at a noon luncheon today for civic, city and county officials at the Fireside Inn.

Hoholik declined comment on the specifics of the development program — how many jobs it would create, exactly what is involved in the expansion and when it would be completed, etc. — when contacted Monday by the Daily Press. The newspaper was not invited to attend the luncheon today.

Hoholik was critical of Daily Press reporting in Escanaba in the controversy over air pollution which erupted following announcement by Mead Corp. that it plans to build a kraft pulp mill in its expansion program at the Escanaba Division plant.

Trade sources said that Field Enterprises does not plan construction of a kraft pulp mill in Manistique. As indicated in the announcement, the first phase of the company's expansion probably will consist of plant modernization and installation of new equipment.

New Machine?

In an interview with Hugh McCann, Detroit Free Press writer, published in the Detroit paper Aug. 18, Hoholik said "the new plant would employ about 500, would make about three times as the present plant, put another $5 million into the blood stream of the town and be completed about 1972."

(Manistique's current payroll for about 170 employees was estimated at about $1.5 million.)

"The new venture would install a new, modern high-speed paper machine which would be designed to make publication grade paper, including newspaper, for which we are hoping to develop markets in Lower Michigan," McCann quoted Hoholik.

"We are hopeful that we will put in a neutral sulfide semichemical pulp mill costing several millions of dollars for utilizing those unwanted hardwood species," Hoholik continued in the article.

Mill Modernized

He further stated that the proposed hardwood plant would be built on some 70 acres in Manistique and would be designed "primarily to use the kind of forest products not presently marketable — maple, birch, beech: all the deciduous species that today have relatively no market as saw logs or charcoal."

Hoholik is co-chairman of Operation Action, U. P., and a member of the Michigan Advisory Task Force of the Upper Great Lakes Regional Commission, whose non-profit corporation, Upper Great Lakes Timber, Inc., a wood industry development agency, he serves as president.

The pulp and paper mill at Manistique has been substantially modernized by Field Enterprises under his management with partial rebuilding of the paper machine and the construction of a new power plant in 1967. The rebuilding project apparently will now be completed in the program announced today.

Wastewater Solution?

Beside the benefits of plant improvement and employment gives hopes for a solution of the water and wastewater problems of the City of Manistique and the paper mill.

The industrial growth projected will create opportunities for special funding of water and wastewater treatment facilities, a problem which has caused great concern all over the Upper Peninsula.

W. German Mark Hits 26 Cents

LONDON (AP) — The value of the West German mark rose from 25 cents to a record 26 cents today, bringing pressure on the dollar in European foreign exchange markets.

The 26-cent level was reached in Frankfurt at the reopening of trading halted last week to head off speculation before West Germany's election.

The West German government decided Monday to let the mark seek its own level in international currency markets.

Its official value had been 25 cents or four marks to the dollar. It opened in Frankfurt this morning at 3.855 marks to the dollar and quickly moved to 3.84 marks.

Dealers in London widened their buying and selling rates of marks to a full three pfennigs. Before the speculative rush to the mark four pfennigs equalled one cent.

President Asks American Unity To Help End War

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has told key congressional Republicans he needs evidence of American unity during the next 60 days as the United States tests whether the new Hanoi regime will move toward a negotiated settlement in Vietnam.

In relaying that message, the two new Senate Republican leaders, Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and Robert P. Griffin of Michigan, did not indicate their source.

However, Nixon met Saturday at Camp David, Md., with party leaders of both House and Senate.

Withdrawal News Hint

Scott, the new Senate GOP leader, said Monday senators should stop suggesting deadlines for U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam.

He said Hanoi should not be given a signal that it can win by waiting, without negotiating a war settlement.

"Those who really want to help the President might give him a 60-day moratorium or breathing spell in order to present a common front to Hanoi," Scott said.

But it was clear at once there would be no cutoff of Vietnam policy dissent in the Senate.

Plan To Be Pushed

Sen. Charles E. Goodell, the New Yorker who has introduced a bill calling for the withdrawal of all U.S. forces from Vietnam by Dec. 1, 1970, said Monday he will go through with his proposal.

3rd Division Marines Head For Okinawa

SAIGON (AP) — About 1,000 Marines of the 3rd Division flew from Vietnam to Okinawa today and another 4,900 prepared to depart for the United States in the first big move in the 35,000-man withdrawal ordered by President Nixon.

Other 3rd Division Leathernecks were not so lucky. One was killed and nine wounded when North Vietnamese gunners slammed 10 mortar shells into their positions along the demilitarized zone.

American B52 bombers retaliated by dropping 600 tons of bombs on North Vietnamese staging areas and just south of the DMZ.

By Christmas, about 18,000 Leathernecks will have left Vietnam as part of Nixon's second troop reduction. A cutoff of 25,000 U.S. troops was completed in August.

The 3rd and the 4th Marine regiments, the two regiments from the 3rd Division left in Vietnam, have patrolled the western two-thirds of South Vietnam's northern frontier area just below the 40-mile wide demilitarized zone. The division's other regiment, the 9th was redeployed in the initial cutoff.

Marine spokesmen at Da Nang said the first 1,000 Marines to leave were from the 3rd Regiment and from the headquarters and support units of the 3rd Division. All have served less than a year, a normal tour of duty, in Vietnam, the spokesmen said.

$286 Million In School Aid Sought

LANSING (AP) — Gov. William Milliken's Special Educational Reform Commission recommended today that the state spend an additional $286 million on education next year, including $25 million to be allocated parochial and nonpublic schools.

Property Tax Favored

To support the program, the commission, recommended a statewide property tax. Ceilings on local property taxes would be lowered.

The $286 million would bring the state's expenditure to $1.3 billion for the 1970-71 school year.

Mrs. Harriet Phillips, chairman of Michigan Citizens to Advance Public Education, announced immediately her organization would go to court in an attempt to prevent state money being given parochial schools.

No Word On Income Tax

The recommendations made no mention of a graduated income tax, and an executive office spokesman said the governor "will not recommend a graduated income tax" to boost educational revenues.

The state now levies a flat-rate 2.6 per cent income tax with revenues going into the general fund. There had been rumors the governor would recommend a change.

If the commission's recommendations were enacted, the state's total bill for education, including an estimated $850 million raised by local taxation, would come to approximately $2 billion a year.

Want Board Eliminated

The commission also recommended that the Legislature allow Michigan voters next August to consider constitutional amendments to abolish the existing State Board of Education and replace it with an educational director appointed by the governor.

The property tax "should be set at a rate somewhere below the statewide average for school operating purposes," the commission said.

Ask Change In Taxes

It recommended reducing the present constitutional ceilings on local property taxes "to reflect the substitute of a state property tax."

The present system, the commission said, "is a procrastinator's paradise."

China Fireworks Of Nuclear-Type

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China, celebrating its upcoming 20th anniversary with nuclear fireworks, has made an unprecedented announcement that Mao Tse-tung and his heir-designate, Lin Biao, will attend Wednesday's festivities in Peking.

Rumors Squelched

In an apparent attempt to scotch rumors that Mao and Lin are seriously ill, New China News Agency announced Monday that both leaders would preside at ceremonies in Peking's Tien An Men Square.

In the past Red China has never made such advance announcements concerning Mao or Lin.

Speculation about their health was fanned by their absence since last May from public functions. There have been persistent rumors that Mao is dead, and anti-Communist newspapers in Hong Kong carried reports Monday that Lin was dying of cancer.

Chinese Remain Silent

The Chinese have remained silent about their nuclear activities, although some announcement might be made in conjunction with the National Day celebration.

The Atomic Energy Commission in Washington said China conducted a nuclear test in the atmosphere Monday, and that the force of the blast was equivalent to 3 million tons of TNT. Japan's Central Meteorological Agency said seismographic vibrations indicated the blast went off in the area of Lop Nor, China's nuclear testing ground in Sinkiang Province.

It was China's 10th nuclear explosion. The ninth, believed to be an underground test, was set off Sept. 22 in the Tien Shan mountains northwest of Lop

Nor. Its size has not been disclosed.

Third Nuclear Blast

Monday's nuclear blast was China's third in the three-megaton range. China's first three-megaton blast was set off June 17, 1967, and the second never publicly announced by Peking, went off Dec. 27, 1968.

The first Chinese nuclear weapon, with a yield equivalent to 20,000 tons of TNT, was exploded Oct. 16, 1964.

LONG BINH, Vietnam (AP)

The six Green Berets officers freed of murder charges celebrated today with a beer bust and prepared to fly home, while the widow of their alleged victim sobbed. "The soul of my husband will follow those who killed him."

Outcome Never In Doubt

"The outcome we never doubted at any time," said Col. Robert Rheault, 43, of Vineyard Haven, Mass., after Army Secretary Stanley R. Resor announced in Washington Monday he and five fellow officers would not be court-martialed in the slaying of an alleged Vietnamese double agent because the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency would not furnish witnesses.

"The only question was how long and how difficult it would be to prove the point," Rheault added as his comrades sky-larked for newsmen, drank beer, loudly played the "Ballad of the Green Berets" on a portable phonograph and got ready to fly home.

Widow Angry

A few miles from this military post, Mrs. Pham Kim Lien, widow of the slain Vietnamese, screamed: "The Americans are worse than the Viet Cong! I'm going to join the Viet Cong! I'm going to blow up the Americans! They are more cruel and savage than the Communists!" She collapsed in sobs, saying: "They eliminated my husband and now they are free. It is not fair. The soul of my husband will follow those who killed them."

Rheault, the slim, blond, crewcut West Pointer who commanded the 3,000 Special Forces in Vietnam before he was charged in the case, made his first public statement about the case in a brief news conference.

He said it involved a "penetration agent . . . an agent who has penetrated one of your own operations, who has come under the guise of a friendly individual."

Slaying Confirmed

Asked whether Thai Khac Chuyen, the Vietnamese who the Army said was slain by the Green Berets last June 20, was such an agent, Rheault said: "I believe so."

He also was asked whether he could think of any circumstances "under which homicide might be justifiable in espionage work."

Replied Rheault, "I don't think you can make the terminology homicide. War is a difficult and dangerous business. People get killed in war. This is not to be considered homicide."

Besides Rheault, the officers facing court-martial in the case were Maj. Thomas C. Middleton Jr., 29, of Jefferson, S.C.; Maj. David E. Crew, 33, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Capt. Leland J. Youths For Understanding:

Young Men To Live, Study In America

BY MRS. I. R. NELSON

Two tall, handsome, foreign exchange students are attending Powers - Spalding High School this year. One, Rajko, (pronounced Ryko) Milovanovic, is making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Gene Marcantonio in Powers and the other, Johannes (Yohannes) Henn is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard LeBoeuf, also of Powers.

The boys are sponsored by Youths for Understanding with international offices in Ann Arbor, Mich. Thirty exchange students came from Yugoslavia this year for the first time and the number of students from Germany has increased to 300 this year.

Rajko, 17, arrived in Powers August 27 from Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, a city of 300,000, which is centrally located in that country. Johannes, 16, of Bremen, Germany, 800,000 population, arrived Aug. 18. Bremen is situated on the Weser River, inland from the North Sea. Both boys will return to their homes in July, 1970.

Longer School Year
Johannes is taking English, typing, economics, United States history and trigonometry. He will finish high school in Germany next year as they have 13 grades. At home he would be carrying 13 subjects instead of only five as he is now doing.

"The school year in Germany begins Aug. 10 and ends in July," he told us. "We have a five day week, 85 days of vacation through the whole year including 10 days in the fall, 10 days at Christmas and 10 at Easter."

"We have 14 subjects in Yugoslavia, 6 days a week, but not all subjects on the same day," said Rajko. "School hours are from 8 to 1 p. m., with a 21 day winter break—200 days of school."

"This year I am taking physics, French, English, government and typing. I have already had four years of physics and what I am getting this year I had in the 8th grade, but," he added, "the review will be good for me in the field I plan to major in. I will enter the University of Sarajevo next year and plan to major in electronics."

World Dress Code
Rajko likes mountain climbing, soccer and classical music

but dislikes television. Johannes, who likes TV, plays the flute, and in sports likes soccer and volleyball, volunteered, "I miss the gymnastics we had in Germany and am undecided yet about going out for basketball."

When asked about teenagers clothes, both boys said teenagers dress the same everywhere. Yugoslavian boys wear their hair long but not extreme. German boys wear theirs slightly longer.

The boys like American food. Rajko said, "I was told before I came to take small portions of all food but to try everything. My trouble is I take large portions and like all of it."

Yugoslavia is a Communist country. "Independent," says Rajko. Germany is a democracy. When asked about church both boys replied, "The old people go to church but not the young."

On the subject of Neo Nazis, Johannes said, "Several hundred Neo Nazis staged a demonstration in Bremen but were surrounded by 10,000 of us so they didn't get anywhere, then the police came with hose and tear gas and dispersed them. They may demonstrate again but not in Bremen."

American Girls
On the subject of American cars Rajko said, "They are too wide, I like small cars better." On the other hand Johannes likes the larger cars. Rajko immediately spoke up saying, "You should say you like the small cars like the Volkswagen. More patriotic."

Germans have breakfast about 6:45 a. m., their main meal at 1 p. m. and supper at 7. The Yugoslavians breakfast at 8 a. m., main meal at 2 or 3 p. m. and supper at 8.

In Yugoslavia, 12 dinar is equivalent to $1 of American money. In Germany, 4 marks equals $1 with Johannes registering pardonable pride in the stability of the German mark.

The boys disagreed about American girls. Johannes thinks they are OK. Rajko said, "Most girls are too—" then threw out his hands expressively, meaning—to put it politely—too plump.

Each boy has a younger brother. Rajko's father is a machinist and his mother is a retired medical nurse. Johannes' father is a commentator on radio and TV and his mother is an elementary teacher.

Edd Doerr

Edd Doerr To Address Meet Here Thursday

"Michigan's Public Education and Religious Liberty Crisis," will be the topic of an address by Edd Doerr, director of educational relations of Americans United for Separation of Church and State, at a free public meeting to be held on Thursday, Oct. 2, at 7:30 p. m., at the Immanuel Lutheran Church, 600 S. Lincoln (formerly 23rd St.), Escanaba.

This meeting is sponsored by the Upper Peninsula Chapter of Americans United.

Mr. Doerr will discuss the threats to public education and religious liberty in Michigan posed by proposals to use tax funds to aid private sectarian schools.

Mr. Doerr is a professional educator who has taught social studies, Spanish, English, math, and science in public and private schools in Indiana and in Latin America. He is the author of "The Conspiracy That Failed," the only book published on the campaign to change the New York Constitution to allow government aid to church schools.

For further information, contact Dr. J. Michael Skates, 210 Cooper Ave., Hancock, Mich. 49930, phone 482-0279, or Mrs. Carlton J. Johnson, Rte. 2, Box 445, Escanaba, Mich. 49829, phone 786-7426.

Health Supervisor To Speak Oct. 7 At Powers Meeting

Mrs. Shirley Oczus, social and health supervisor for the Community Action Agency of Menominee, Delta and Schoolcraft counties, will be the guest speaker for the Auxiliary of the Tony Revord American Legion Post 244, at Powers, on Oct. 7, at 8 p. m.

The event is a preliminary and exploratory meeting to determine the uses of the Pinecrest Nurses residence as a health and care facility. The lack of health and care facilities is a most serious problem that must receive the attention and support of the entire community. Auxiliary officials said, and the purpose of the three meetings is to inform the three counties of the action taken to this date and to understand how, why and where the individual resident must participate. An open forum for questions and answers will follow the talk by Mrs. Oczus.

The public is invited. Refreshments will be served by the Auxiliary members after the meeting.

Isabella

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Knudson of Gladstone has purchased the former Ralph Morrison home at Isabella. Mrs. Knudson is the former Margaret Sundling.

Mrs. Henry Turan is spending several days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Larry Gendron at Gladstone.

Dr. Jack Davis of Pittsburgh, Pa. spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Soderberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ne-deau spent the weekend in Milwaukee at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Clausen.

Mrs. Helmer Nelson, Mrs. Gust Conaway and Esther Nelson spent Thursday at Menominee.

Seek Rezoning For Apartments

A request for the rezoning of an area west of the Goulais Addition on 18th Ave. S. for multiple family (apartment) use will come to the City Council Thursday night.

The property is owned by Art Goulais and the request to the city is being made by William DeHaan. The area at 18th Ave. S. between 21st and 22nd Sts. in Precise Plat No. 4 is now zoned Residence A, for single family dwellings.

The Council may be expected to follow established procedure and refer the request to the Planning Commission for study and recommendation. The Council will meet at the Civic Center at 8 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 2.

Other matters on the Council agenda will include consideration of a request from Clairmont Transfer Co. for repurchasing by the City of industrial property on the Danforth Road; and a report and recommendation on downtown traffic changes.

Julius Danowski, who is constructing a dwelling and boat house on the bay shore north of the Chamber of Commerce building, is requesting the city approve his application for adjacent waterfront property under the Submerged Lands Act.

The Council is also to adopt a proclamation for PTA membership enrollment month beginning Oct. 1.

Briefly Told

The Golden Age Club will meet Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the Civic Center. Cards, lunch and dancing will be held.

The Pine Forest Smear Club will resume play Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the club in Ford River. All team captains are requested to register their players names with on Taylor.

The Escanaba River Post 115, American Legion Auxiliary, will hold its regular meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the Flat Rock Hall.

Boy Scout Troop 409 will meet Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. at the Webster School. All boys who would like to become Scouts are welcome to attend. Parents should accompany any boy who wishes to join.

John Holochwest, Rte. 2, Bark River, reported to State Police that someone took a 7-year-old, white-faced Hereford from his farm near Perronville. Troopers have the missing cow under investigation.

State Police issued traffic citations Monday to Harold Tuyls, Cornell, no registration; Gene Theberge, Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada, speeding; and David Hosking, Rte. 1, Escanaba, speeding.

Richard Sandstrom, 1009 Superior, Gladstone reported to State Troopers that someone broke into a caboose near the E&LS railroad office in Wells and took a kerosene lantern.

The proficiency class of the R. C. Hathaway Chapter No. 49, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet at 7:30 p. m. tonight at the Masonic Temple.

DAY CARE CENTER

The Menominee-Delta-Schoolcraft Community Action Agency has openings for children age 3 through 5 of working parents.

The center is open from 7:30 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. and is located in the Catherine Bonifas Civic Center. Complete social and pre-school educational programs are offered daily under the direction of a qualified teacher.

A weekly rate (5 days) of $22.50 per child has been established for the child care program. This also includes a hot lunch at noon plus morning and afternoon snacks.

Teachers To Hear Doerr:

Public Funding For Non-Public Schools Topic

The question "Public Funds for Non-Public Schools?" will be the topic for Edd Doerr, Washington, D.C., of Americans United for Separation of Church and State, in his address to the third general session of the MEA conference Friday morning in Escanaba.

He will speak in the Escanaba Area Public High School gym at 10:30 a. m. at the closing session of the two-day conference of public school teachers of the Upper Peninsula.

Before joining the staff of Americans United in January of 1966, Doerr taught history, government, Spanish, and English in Indiana public schools. He has also taught science and mathematics in a private school in South America, and has been a social worker and magazine editor.

Doerr organized and was the first president of the Indianapolis chapter of Americans United. He has testified before Congressional, state legislative, and state constitutional convention committees on church-state and religious liberty matters. He is an accomplished speaker and has appeared often on radio and television.

A prolific writer, Doerr has published numerous articles, reviews, short stories, and other items in periodicals in the United States, Great Britain, India, and Australia.

Doerr is a member of Phi Delta Kappa (the professional educators' fraternity) and the Horace Mann League. He is a member of the board of governors of the Maryland Civil Liberties Union and serves on the church-state committee of the National Capital Area Civil Liberties Union. He is a director of the National Capital Area Chapter of Americans United and a member of the Council for Humanist and Ethical Concerns.

Doerr was born in Indianapolis in 1930 and is a graduate of Indiana University. He has also studied at Butler University and the Universities of Chicago and Wisconsin.

Latin America has long been of interest to Doerr and he has spent considerable time there in research, mainly on church-state problems. He is currently translating the work of a controversial South American religious leader.

A talented amateur musician, Doerr has performed publicly with the Paint Branch Pro Musica, a Washington area medieval instrument group. He is married to the former Isabel Navarete, a native of Columbia. They have two children, Eric and Elena.

Nelson Given Army Medal

Pfc. Fred D. Nelson Jr., whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson Sr., live at 309 N. 10th St., Escanaba, received the Army Commendation Medal recently in Vietnam.

Pfc. Nelson received the award for heroism in action while engaged in military operations against a hostile force.

A seaman in the U. S. Army Harbortcraft Company near Saigon, Nelson entered the Army in May 1968, completed basic training at Ft. Campbell, Ky., and was stationed at Ft. Eustis, Va., before arriving in Vietnam last April. He holds the Purple Heart.

The 21-year-old soldier attended Escanaba High School and was employed by Ford Motor Company, Detroit, before entering the Army.

Teachers To Hear Doerr:

Public Funding For Non-Public Schools Topic

The question "Public Funds for Non-Public Schools?" will be the topic for Edd Doerr, Washington, D.C., of Americans United for Separation of Church and State, in his address to the third general session of the MEA conference Friday morning in Escanaba.

He will speak in the Escanaba Area Public High School gym at 10:30 a.m. at the closing session of the two-day conference of public school teachers of the Upper Peninsula.

Before joining the staff of Americans United in January of 1966, Doerr taught history, government, Spanish, and English in Indiana public schools. He has also taught science and mathematics in a private school in South America, and has been a social worker and magazine editor.

Doerr organized and was the first president of the Indianapolis chapter of Americans United. He has testified before Congressional, state legislative, and state constitutional convention committees on church-state and religious liberty matters. He is an accomplished speaker and has appeared often on radio and television.

A prolific writer, Doerr has published numerous articles, reviews, short stories, and other items in periodicals in the United States, Great Britain, India, and Australia.

Doerr is a member of Phi Delta Kappa (the professional educators fraternity) and the Horace Mann League. He is a member of the board of governors of the Maryland Civil Liberties Union and serves on the church-state committee of the National Capital Area Civil Liberties Union. He is a director of the National Capital Area Chapter of Americans United and a member of the Council for Humanist and Ethical Concerns.

Doerr was born in Indianapolis in 1930 and is a graduate of Indiana University. He has also studied at Butler University and the Universities of Chicago and Wisconsin.

Latin America has long been of interest to Doerr and he has spent considerable time there in research, mainly on church-state problems. He is currently translating the work of a controversial South American religious leader.

A talented amateur musician, Doerr has performed publicly with the Paint Branch Pro Musica, a Washington area medieval instrument group. He is married to the former Isabel Navarete, a native of Columbia. They have two children, Eric and Elena.

Nelson Given Army Medal

Pfc. Fred D. Nelson Jr., whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson Sr., live at 309 N. 10th St., Escanaba, received the Army Commendation Medal recently in Vietnam.

Pfc. Nelson received the award for heroism in action while engaged in military operations against a hostile force.

A seaman in the U. S. Army Harbormaster Company near Saigon, Nelson entered the Army in May 1968, completed basic training at Ft. Campbell, Ky., and was stationed at Ft. Eustis, Va., before arriving in Vietnam last April. He holds the Purple Heart.

The 21-year-old soldier attended Escanaba High School and was employed by Ford Motor Company, Detroit, before entering the Army.

H. H. Dubbelde

Two Promoted By State Bank

Promotion of H. H. Dubbelde from assistant cashier to vice president, and the promotion of Paul "Bud" Laviolette from assistant cashier to cashier at the State Bank of Escanaba was announced today by Forrest A. Henslie, executive vice president.

Arthur C. Arch, former vice president and cashier, resigned to accept a position with a Wisconsin bank.

Dubbelde joined the bank in November of 1966 as an assistant cashier, moving to Escanaba from Dearborn, Mich. He graduated from the University of Illinois with a B. S. degree in management, and from Northern Michigan University School of Banking.

Active in community affairs, Dubbelde is chairman of the Delta County Republican Committee, a director of the Escanaba Rotary Club, chairman of the Delta County Chapter of the Easter Seal Society of Michigan, and a director of the U. P. Chapter of the Society.

He is an Elder of the First Presbyterian Church. Dubbelde is married to the former Ruth Sinks of Cairo, Ill., and the couple resides at 1907 Park Ave., Escanaba, with their two daughters, Denise 17 and Mary Beth 14. Paul "Bud" Laviolette is a native of Escanaba. He joined the State Bank in July, 1968 as assistant cashier and had been employed locally in the banking business for the previous eight years. He is a graduate of St. Joseph High School and the University of Michigan School of Banking.

Laviolette is also active in community affairs. He is a member of the City of Escanaba Board of Appeals, the Escanaba Serran Club, the Exchange Club and is a past president of the Escanaba Junior Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of St. Joseph's Church.

Laviolette is married to the former Joyce Morton of Escanaba, and the couple resides at 330 S. 9th St. with their four children, Douglas 16, Mark 13, Scott 12 and Hope 5.

MICROMINIATURE MOON MESSAGES — This is a close-up of the coin-size silicon disc carried by the Apollo 11 astronauts to the Moon bearing messages of good will from 74 countries. The disc rests within an 11-sided-silver-anodized aluminum capsule left on the Moon. Each message was reduced 200 times to a size much smaller than the head of a pin by a process employing a Kodak photosensitive resist and high resolution plates. The message congratulate the United States and the astronauts.

Newspapers Given Tips By APME Head

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Newspapers must "dig more deeply to discover the significant things" in order to maintain reader confidence, the Associated Press Managing Editors Association was told today.

These and other steps to counteract a credibility problem that "appears to exist between us and our readers" were offered by Charles S. Rowe, APME president, at the opening of the organization's four-day annual convention.

Rowe, editor and co-publisher of the Fredericksburg, Va., Free Lance-Star, said newspapers must "strive harder to make certain that our stories are accurate and complete, our headlines precise, our handling of stories and their display fair."

Rowe said newspapers might otherwise face a variation of the so-called "equal time" demands made on radio and television stations.

Rowe cited two study reports by the APME's Content and Promotion committees which pointed to a high rate of public distrust of what newspapers say.

Half of the 260 people interviewed in a random sampling reported "lack of confidence in their newspapers in one way or another," Rowe said.

In a study of 53 editors, public officials and community leaders, a majority cited instances of editorial prejudice in placement and length of news stories, misleading headlines and over-attention to sensational news of violence, Rowe said.

He called for concentration on

"developments whose long term implications are far more significant than the bulk of the negative news that tradition says we must print."

Awards are to be presented during the business session to 44 newspapers and three broadcast stations for exceptional contributions to the AP news report.

On Wednesday the 300 editors will hear addresses by Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., and Daniel P. Moynihan, President Nixon's adviser for urban affairs.

Thermal Shock Not Harming Fish: Report

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Muskegon River anglers needn't be panicked by the report that "great numbers" of Chinook salmon died in Muskegon Lake of "thermal shock."

John Trimmer, district fish biologist for the Department of Natural Resources, says the number actually was "insignificant" in terms of the total fall run of Chinooks in the Muskegon, which hasn't really started yet.

He was able to check out "about 30" and that's a long way from a disaster.

Entering the warm water of Muskegon Lake from cooler Lake Michigan, the too-anxious fish could not find tolerable temperatures and sufficient oxygen at the same depth, mostly because they arrived too early.

The main run, which is controlled largely by temperatures, isn't apt to happen until the water cools off both in the Lake Michigan shallows and Muskegon Lake.

Chinook are already jumping in the upper waters of the Muskegon River although they don't seem to be biting too well. Two 20-pound Chinook were caught Saturday at Old Croton Dam, 30 miles upstream, which is as far as the fish can go.

It does not appear that the main run has arrived, although it is expected any day.

Even if things are not right then, a serious spawning run of salmon could whip through that lake in half an hour if they want to — and they'll want to.

Steel head trout, which usually run a little later, have never had any trouble in Muskegon Lake and the main swarms of salmon aren't apt to, either.

'Outsiders' Get Blame For U.S. Campus Rifts

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A campus police chief says student uprisings are being masterminded by off-campus revolutionaries who hope to take over the United States.

"The day of the student disturbance is past, at least at Berkeley," declared Chief William Beall of the police force at the University of California's Berkeley branch.

"The senseless violence at Berkeley during the past year was planned, instigated and financed by a small band of off-campus revolutionaries."

"Police should realize that student idealists and pacifists have been replaced by an older group of migrant street people, narcotics users and what we call 'crazies.'"

Beall said organizers in the San Francisco Bay area boast that they can mobilize 10,000 such persons in a week's time.

Beall addressed a campus disorders workshop Monday at the 76th convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Negro Killed, 4 Policemen Hurt In Dallas Fray

DA, AS, Tex. (AP) — A young Negro shot another Negro to death and wounded four white policemen and three women neighbors before encircling police killed him Monday night.

About 300 Negroes gathered at the scene of the gunfight and pop bottles were thrown at police cars. Two firebombs were hurled and a grocery window smashed.

Surgeons tried today to save the sight in the left eye of one of the wounded officers, G.M. Robinson. The other policemen were less seriously injured.

Police said Johnny Lee Thomas, 26, inexplicably fired a shotgun from the porch of his home, killing Frank Henry Buford, 40.

Officers Paul Wimer and Terry Donovan, first to reach the scene, were shot as they stepped from their squad car.

When Robinson arrived, police said, he saw Thomas raising the shotgun and tried to shoot him, but his revolver misfired and he took a shotgun blast in the face.

The fourth wounded officer, Stanley L. Southall, was shot after Thomas had barricaded himself inside the frame residence and police surrounded the house.

Briefly Told

A dog obedience class will be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday in the basement of the civic center.

A drag racing summons issued by Escanaba Police was to Ronald Bricker, Blackwell Ave., Gladstone, not to Donald Bricker as the Daily Press reported Monday.

Delta Lodge 195, Free and Accepted Masons, will hold its regular communication at the Masonic Temple Wednesday at 7:30. Lunch will be served and visiting Masons are invited to attend the session.

Deer Research

Every year, from some group or individual in the Upper Peninsula, there comes the appeal to return the State of Michigan to its former one buck season.

The arguments take the same approach — that the deer herd in the Upper Peninsula is declining and if the Department of Natural Resources continues to permit shooting of any deer that the population will dwindle even further.

But that isn't necessarily the case. Game biologists, while they admittedly have a lot to learn about the relationships of deer to habitat and predation, do have a wealth of research to tap in considering hunting seasons. One such source is the University of Michigan, where the George Reserve was established near Ann Arbor in 1927.

The reserve is two miles long, a mile wide and is about "40 per cent grassland, 35 per cent woodland, 15 per cent swampland and 10 per cent open water," according to the Aug., 1969, issue of Research News published by the Office of Research Administration at the University. The area is enclosed by an 11-foot high fence and a deer herd — two males and four female white-tailed deer from Grand Island near Munising — was created in 1928.

University scientists have been studying deer since then and some rather interesting results have been noted.

In 1933, for example, when the first census was taken in the Reserve the deer population had increased to 160, giving an indication of the reproductive potential of white-tailed deer under nearly ideal conditions — an abundance of high-quality forage and an absence of major predators.

Research has shown that the herd in the Reserve must be reduced periodically or it "would increase so much that many of the weaker deer would starve during the winter. As the number of deer increase, fawn recruitment (defined as the number of fawns surviving until fall in relation to the breeding population) drops off drastically, but this does not occur soon enough to prevent weaker deer from starving."

"As the breeding population increases, fawn recruitment drops off," Research News reports. A breeding population of 90 produces about 45 fawns for example, but a population of 100 produces 43 fawns, 120 produces 37 fawns, and 160 only 12 fawns.

"Embryo counts on harvested females show that the reduced fawn recruitment does not result from unsuccessful breeding, but from poor nutrition. Feeding trials conducted by the Dept. of Natural Resources of the State of Michigan suggest that if the females are on a very poor diet early in pregnancy, they will abort. If the diet is somewhat better, but still not good enough, they will give birth, but the fawn will either be stillborn or will be extremely weak and the mother will not be able to produce milk for it."

Statistics like this, while admittedly the result of a "laboratory experiment" in the somewhat controlled conditions in the University's game reserve, do provide game biologists with information about wild deer.

They seem to indicate that if the deer population gets too high, that Mother Nature itself will reduce the herd through failure of the reproductive systems.

Research, of course, will continue and already "airborne infrared scanning" has been used successfully in deer census in the reserve and Prof. Dale McCullough of the U-M Dept. of Wildlife and Fisheries expects that a good proportion of the deer will be tagged or otherwise marked, including some with radio transmitters. "Conceivably in a few years at least some of the deer will be bearing a number of electronic sensors, somewhat in the way astronauts are now wired for space flights," he reported.

As the research continues, more and more will be known to man. Prof. McCullough hopes that as information is assembled, the data will suggest the kinds of information needed to assess the herd condition, recruitment and harvest potential of deer herds throughout North America.

It's this type of approach that is needed, not the emotional calls for a buck season only.

The researchers may not know all the answers yet, but they're working on it.

School Prayer

School officials in several communities, responding to popular demand, are seeking to restore prayer and other devotional exercises to the public schools.

In Nottoway, N. J., the Board of Education has adopted a plan for voluntary prayer in the schools "forcing no student to pray if unwilling but denying no student the right to pray."

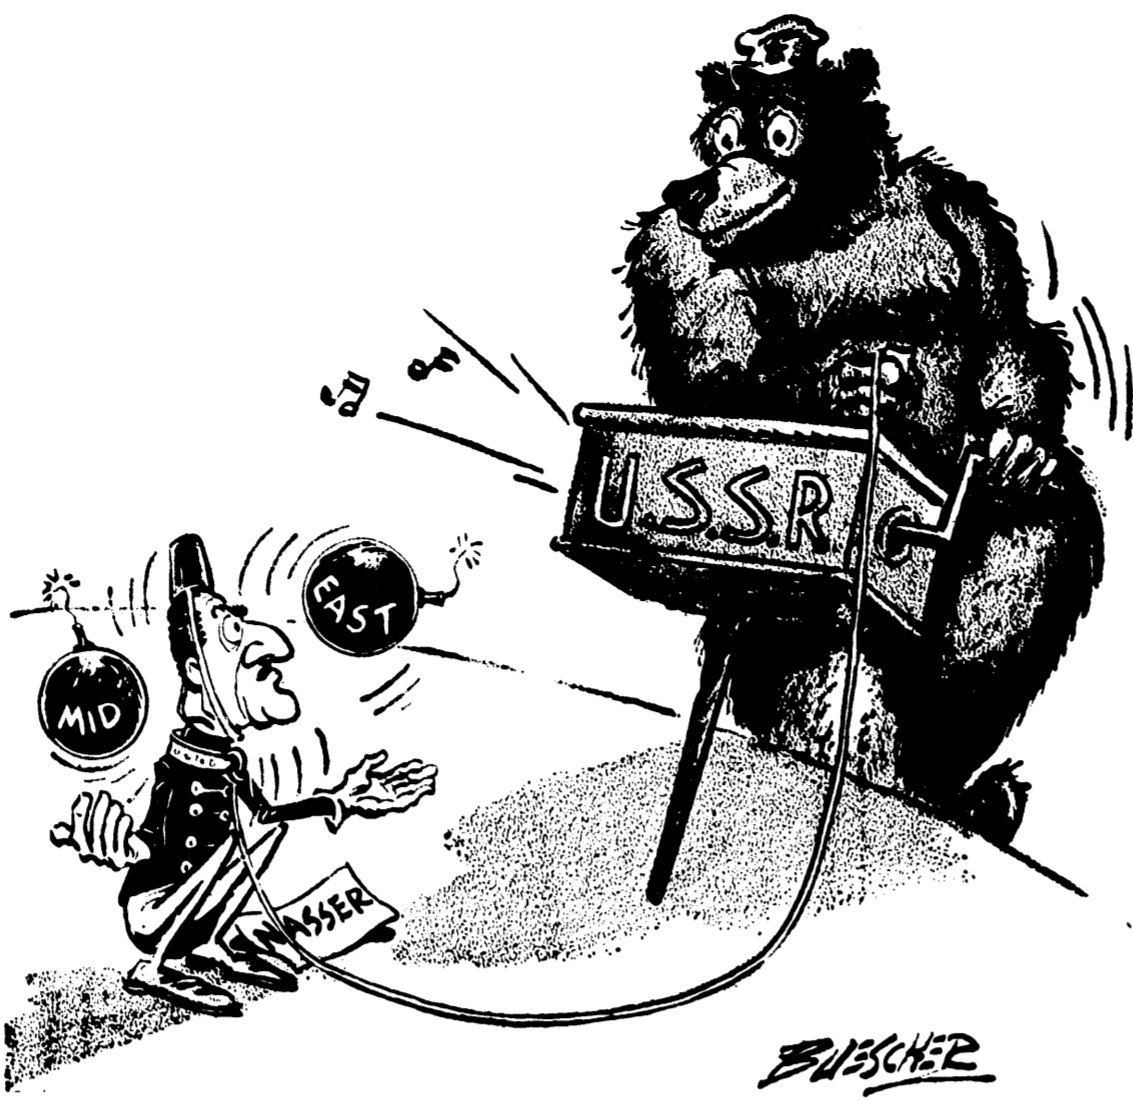

Board members said they were attempting to stay within the law, as set forth by the Supreme Court in 1963, while at the same time according to the wishes of the community.

In Leyden, Mass., the school committee is wrestling with the same problem: How to accommodate the public and also navigate legal thorns created by the court. The committee has devised a plan which may meet the test. It has set aside a five-minute period during each school day in which students may freely and voluntarily pray.

The committee's plan, which could serve as a model for other communities, states: "On each school day, before class instruction begins, a period of not more than five minutes shall be available to those teachers and students who may wish to participate voluntarily in the free exercise of religion as guaranteed by our U. S. Constitution. The freedom of religion shall not be expressed in any way which will interfere with others' rights."

The effect of the 1963 Supreme Court ruling was to discourage almost all religious exercises in public schools. A close reading of the decision, however, indicates that this is not what the court mandated.

BARE FACTS

Ingenious Americans Beat Inflation Moves

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

ST. THOMAS, Virgin Islands — Back on the U.S. mainland the Nixon Administration is discovering that it takes more than fiscal and Federal Reserve clampdowns to choke back the natural surge of the American economy.

The taxpayer moonlights to keep his monthly payments going. Wives take jobs. The credit card business assumes new dimensions every day. And, for islands such as the U.S. Virgin Islands, lucky it is that the Age of Affluence—and in-and-out-of-season vacations—seems as hard to kill as a snake before sundown.

But, you say, there must be a ceiling to it all somewhere, especially in Caribbean play spots. For example, capital for hotels is growing scarce, and where it can be had it comes at fantastic interest rates. So the boom in the Virgin Islands, which live on the overflow of continental well-being, would seem to be self-limiting.

Alas for the hopes of President Nixon—and of Federal Reserve chief William McChesney Martin — for a quickly cooling economy, the ingenuity of their countrymen is endless. You see it here in the Virgin Islands, on St. Thomas and on its neighboring island of St. Croix, in the sudden growth of the condominium apartment. But it is not just that U.S. mainlanders are seeking vacation homes which they might rent out at a profit when they are not using them. The truth is that resort hotel capitalists, faced with the high cost of money, have discovered in condominium building a way of obtaining capital for a hotel without putting up any money themselves.

The trick is this: you plan a cluster of two and three bedroom condominiums, neatly spaced around a central administration building, and sell them off while they are still on the drawing board to individuals at prices that range from $40,000 or $50,000 up. Then, with your capital in hand, you construct what you have already sold.

But you do it on a lease-back arrangement. The contract stipulates that the new condominium owner will only make personal use of his vacation hideaway for six weeks out of the year. For the remaining 46 weeks the condominium will be at the disposal of the "hotel" owner, to be rented as seaside bedroom space. The profits of the hotel keeping will, of course, be shared between the management and the individual owner of the property.

On St. Thomas there are three hotel-associated condominium projects, at Cowpet Bay, at Sapphire Bay, and at a place called Pineapple. The last-named will feature three-bedroom apartments, each with its separate bath. The "hotel" will be able to rent each separate establishment as three hotel rooms when the owners are absent.

The new device would seem to be a direct reaction to the Nixon Administration's program for choking down the boom in order to stop inflation. Whether this action will be overdone remains to be seen. On a trip around the larger island of St. Croix it was shown condominium projects at a rate that exceeded my ability to jot down the names in a notebook. Granted that the American hunger for the sun in winter is endless, it must still strain the jet airline business to get enough people south to fill the space being prepared for them in the Virgin Islands. But they are talking of a new jet port on rugged St. Thomas, to be made by leveling off some hillsides and bridging over the space between islets protecting a lagoon. So the thousands of condominium apartments operated by the new "hotels" promise a pay-off even though some bottlenecks remain to be broken.

As one who delights in watching the spirit of man conquer bureaucratic and other restrictions, even at the cost of inflation, I was charmed by the Virgin Islands.

There is so much work to be had on St. Thomas and neighboring St. Croix that the local businessmen have had to import 15,000 "bonded" aliens from the neighboring islands, mainly British, that stretch all the way down to Trinidad off the Venezuelan coast. This gives a great fillip to a region that desperately needs all the help it can get.

To break a local travel bottleneck, the recently retired chief pilot of Pan American World Airways, Captain Charles Blair, has bought up a fleet of old Grumman Goose flying boats, which he operates between St. Thomas and St. Croix and to Fajardo in Puerto Rico. He has brought his bride, the movie actress, Maureen O'Hara, to the islands, to live in a duplicate of an Irish castle.

And then there are the hydrofoils, built in Italy, Norway, and Russia, which will open many options to visitors wishing to reach the British Virgin Islands and other spots in the Lesser Antilles at a fast speed.

Such is the U. S. economy at a growing point. It is my guess that it cannot be choked.

River Salmon Run 'Hooks' Fishermen

By JACK MELL

FRANKFORT (AP) — The fun of going fishing for coho and chinook salmon is not in just catching the fish. Coho fishing companionship and a change of routine are all part of the outing.

The salmon are now on a rampage in the Manistee and Platte river areas. Hottest fishing last weekend was in Lake Michigan just off the Platte. There were so many fishing boats that conservation officers and policemen had to stand waist deep in the water and direct boat traffic.

River Traffic Heavy This river has one channel that is of sufficient depth to allow boats to travel into Lake Michigan. The traffic was so heavy that officers stood in the water, letting a few go out and then let some come back in. This procedure went on all day. The fishing was great. Most all of the anglers fishing off the Platte caught salmon — providing they fished deep enough. The salmon were really deep; most were between 50 and 70 feet below the surface. Many more chinooks were taken than cohos. These fish frequently weighed over 25 pounds, and some boats landed 10 or more of them.

Coaches Enjoy Sport I fished the Manistee area Saturday with several companions. Several of us left for a camping spot along Manistee Lake Friday evening. Niles basketball coach Dean Adams went out shortly after school was out. Dr. Walter S. Dailey and I went to the Friday Holland-Niles football game when it was over, picked up assistant coach Rich Weiborn and headed on up to Manistee to meet Adams and the rest of our friends.

Lake Michigan was calm Saturday and Doc Dailey and I launched my small 12 foot boat in one of the new boat landings at the mouth of the Manistee. These sites are terrific. There is little or no waiting. The cost of floating your boat and parking for the day is $1.50. This is a real bargain when you think of the convenience.

The rest of our party went in other boats to try the same area. We noted several boats with one or two fish, but the success in the Manistee area was far below that in the Platte river area. Nevertheless, everyone in our party brought home a fish.

Doctor "Doing Well" For a while, it looked like neither Doc or myself were going to catch a fish. But Doc only said, "I'm having the time of my life even if we don't catch a thing. Last night was the first time in over two weeks that I could count on a full night's sleep. The phone has rung every night and I was up every night last week with a patient or delivering a baby." This trip was what the doctor needed — or ordered, as the old saying goes. Actually, this was my first weekend or evening from work since school started. I kept thinking that more people ought to get away, if only for the relaxation alone.

Dailey and I saw a concentration of crafts about a half mile north of the mouth of the Manistee. We trolled down there but only found a few of the boats with a salmon on the stringer. I started to turn around, and to my surprise, had my first hit.

I was tied into something heavy. The salmon made several runs, wallowed a couple of times on the surface and then dove for the bottom again. This was some excitement. In about 10 minutes, Doc slid the net under a nice chinook.

Dailey Hooks One It wasn't but a short time that Dailey hooked into another salmon. This fish was also a chinook. Both of us had enjoyed the trip and the companionship we shared, but these two nice salmon were indeed added bonuses.

Checking with other fishermen back at the camp showed chinooks were hitting on both live and artificial baits. A few eager anglers tried their luck with nightcrawlers in Manistee Lake even after dark and caught chinooks.

The fish are not yet swarming into the streams. Conservation officials think they may come in anytime now, but it might be as long as a couple of weeks before the main migration picks-up.

New superhighways dramatically reduce driving time between European capitals. Motorists go all the way from Vienna through Germany to Amsterdam—a distance of 800 miles—in 15 hours.

Opening lead—king of clubs. Most players shun artificial conventions and bid naturally, but there is no doubt that when the ideal hand for a convention you use comes along, you are bound to be pleased when you achieve the perfect result.

Bill Flannery, of Pittsburgh, devised a convention a few years ago that is tremendously helpful when you are dealt a hand containing four spades and five hearts, as well as 12 to 16 high-card points.

Using standard methods, it is hard to describe such a hand. Using the Flannery convention, you simply open the bidding with an artificial bid of two diamonds and your partner immediately knows the point-count range of your hand and the distribution in the major suits.

Consider this deal played by Flannery (South) in a regional championship. His two diamond bid was artificial and his partner (Paul Swanson, also of Pittsburgh) responded two no-trump—an artificial bid requesting South to define his exact distribution in the minor suits.

The four diamond response indicated precisely 4-5-4-0 distribution. Learning that South was void in clubs, which was an exceptionally favorable development, North bid four no-trump (Blackwood).

When South showed two aces by responding five hearts, North bid five no-trump (again Blackwood), but this time asking for kings.

When South showed one king by responding five hearts, North had all the information he needed to undertake a grand slam. He knew that South had 4-5-4-0 distribution, the two red aces, and the king of spades — therefore absolutely certain.

From North's viewpoint, South turned out to have the perfect hand, but if South had had a less satisfactory hand (for example: ♠ KQ83 ♥ A563 ♦ Q4 ♣ Q9), his response of North's forcing bids would have been entirely different and the final contract would have been a safe four hearts.

LANGUAGE CONFUSION

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (AP) — African pupils who must know two languages if they want to study at high school now have to learn a third one. Before the present government came to power in 1948 Africans were taught mainly in English. The late Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd, then minister of native affairs, in 1954 ordered that Africans be educated in junior school in their own tribal language to stop producing what he called "black Englishmen."

High school education continued mainly in English but now, said Metcalf Maliza, principal of the Kwazakhele High School here, the government has ordered that high school education must be in both English and Afrikaans, the languages of the two main white groups in South Africa. Maliza said the change from the vernacular to one white language already caused confusion and the situation would become worse.

Ann Landers

No Scientific Way For Developing Child

Dear Ann Landers: Is there any way a person can tell in advance whose physical characteristics will dominate in an offspring.

I've heard it said that girls most often look like their fathers and boys like their mothers. Both my sister and I resemble Daddy. Our brother looks like Mom, so in our family the theory is borne out.

I am going with a very fine fellow. I'd like to marry him but I am worried about something. If we should have daughters that looked like Jim they would be in plenty of trouble. He has very coarse features and is 6'5". His nickname is Gorilla.

Is there anything a couple can do in advance to make sure their children will inherit the physical characteristics of the best looking parent? This might sound like a stupid question but if science can put a man on the moon it can do anything. — Gorilla's Girl

Dear Girl: Sorry but at this writing no scientific formula has been developed to produce a child with the physical characteristics of the best-looking parent. Maybe next year.

Dear Ann Landers: The other day I wore another woman's raincoat home from the beauty shop. I didn't realize the error until I put my hand in the pocket and discovered her car keys. The minute I reached home I phoned the beauty shop and told them of my mistake. They said the lady had already reported that the coat had been "stolen." I returned her coat to the beauty shop immediately.

Two weeks later I was back in the beauty shop. A woman came in, seated herself next to me and started to speak. I heard my dryer on and couldn't hear what she was saying. When I turned the dryer off I was embarrassed to death. She was shouting in a voice that could be heard in the next county, "Aren't you the person who took my coat and car keys?" I replied, "Yes, I'm sorry."

Instead of thanking me she hollered, "You owe me a dollar. I had to take a taxi home on account of you." I reached in my purse and handed her a dollar. She then shouted, "You owe me another dollar. I had to take a taxi back to the shop to get my coat." I gave her another dollar. By that time everyone in the shop was staring at us. I felt like a fool and left the shop read-faced and humiliated. Don't you agree she owes me an apology? — Sigrid

Dear S: Yes, but don't stand on one foot waiting. The woman is obviously a clod. True, you inadvertently inconvenienced her but you went out of your way to rectify the mistake and she should have been gracious and thanked you.

Dear Ann Landers: Dave and I have been secretly married for two years. Both his parents and mine were dead opposed to our getting married while we were in college so we eloped in our sophomore year. We want to become engaged at Christmas and have a church wedding the following June, immediately after graduation. Is there anything legally wrong with this plan? — New York Question

Dear N. Y. Q.: No. You can marry each other as often as you like.

"The Bride's Guide," Ann Landers' booklet, answers some of the most frequently asked questions about weddings. To receive your copy of this comprehensive guide, write to Ann Landers, in care of your newspaper, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents in coin.

Escanaba has a chance to become a regular stop in an airplane line. Yesterday Mayor Chatfield received a letter from C. F. Adams, president of an organization known as the Associated Highways of America which has called a meeting to be held in Kansas City on Oct. 30. The mayor is asked to name a representative of the city to attend the convention in the event this city has a suitable site which could be used for the landing of aircraft.

Miss Viola Finch has returned from a week-end trip to Chicago.

Keynote Speaker

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Whitney M. Young Jr., executive director of the National Urban League, will be keynote speaker when Western Michigan University opens a new graduate program in social work Oct. 10.

Young, who is also president of the National Association of Social Workers, will visit Western at the same time that the association holds a regional meeting in Kalamazoo.

'Mame' A Hit In Opening

"Mame" isn't quite a hippy. She isn't quite an accepted member of society's upper crust, either.

But she and her friends did provide a basket of laughs and an evening of solid entertainment Monday night at the Escanaba Area High School auditorium as Players de Noc opened a five-day run of the popular musical comedy.

Directed by Peter D. Adamini, drama, and Marie K. Peterson, music, "Mame" moved swiftly through 18 years — 1928 to 1946 — and while her orphaned nephew, Patrick, grew up during that period, it didn't change Mame's outlook on life.

Loves Life

She came into the play loving life and living it to the hilt and exited the same way, even though when the stock market crashed in 1929 she was forced to go to work in a variety of occupations.

A bit part she received in a play through her friendship with Vera Charles provided one of the play's sparkling moments when Miss Charles, after singing "The Man In The Moon Is A Lady," exclaimed "the man in the moon is a bitch" as Mame fell off the moon.

Arlene Hendrickson, who is serving her second year as secretary of Players de Noc, was excellent in the role of "Mame" as was Coralie Puglisi as Vera Charles. Mary Lee DeGrand, who played Agnes, the prudish maid who turned up pregnant after "living" like Mame suggested, was marvelous.

When Mame asked, "What Happened?", Agnes answered "I opened a new window," but "What do I do now?"

Patricks Impress

The Patricks — Bill Wertz, a sixth grade student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wertz of Escanaba, as younger Patrick and Jim Bruce, who made his stage debut as older Patrick — also were impressive.

Other main characters included Richard Marenger as Babcock, Jim Moore at Ito and Harold Olson as Beauregard Jackson Pickett Burnsides.

Musically, although one of the major numbers was shortened slightly from the Broadway version, the production was excellent. The orchestration even included a banjo, played by Albert Rockstead, in what must be a "first" for drama in Escanaba.

"Mame" will continue tonight, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It's an enjoyable evening. — Dave Andrews.

Joint Meeting

DETROIT (AP)—A joint meeting of the Detroit City Council, the Detroit Board of Education and New Detroit Inc., scheduled for Wednesday, has been postponed until after the November election to allow new council members to sit in.

School Supt. Norman Drachler said he would like to feel free to request an earlier meeting should the situation warrant it.

Mrs. Mary Reno Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Mary C. Reno, 62, of 17 S. 2nd St., Wells, died suddenly at her home Monday at 1 p. m.

She was born on Nov. 17, 1906, in Powers and had resided in Wells for the past 20 years. She was a member of St. Anthony's Church, St. Anthony's Guild and the Daughters of Isabella.

Her husband, Earl E. Reno, preceded her in death on June 20, 1968.

She is survived by two sons, Allen and Earl, both of Escanaba; three daughters, Mrs. Clarence (Joan) Robitaille, Mrs. Walter (Beverly) Menard and Mrs. Wayne (Judith) Berthume, all of Escanaba; four sisters, Mrs. Rose Belongie of Calif., Mrs. Joseph (Blanche) Forgette of Iron Mountain, Mrs. Louis (Evelyn) Pintal of Escanaba and Mrs. Eugene (Edith) Rumpf of Kingsford; one brother, Jerry LeBlanc of Hermansville and 21 grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Allo Funeral Home Wednesday from 3 to 9:30 p. m. The Daughters of Isabella will recite the Rosary at 4 p. m. Wednesday and parish prayers will be said Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 10 a. m. at St. Anthony's Church with the Rev. Norbert Freiburger officiating. Burial will be in the Escanaba Township Cemetery.

Order Trees Now For Future Stock

Order blanks are now available at the District headquarters and Forestry Division offices of the Department of Natural Resources for planting stock from the State Forest Nurseries at Manistique and Brighton, Michigan.

Carlton Hollister, Nursery Superintendent of the Wyman Nursery, reports that a total of 7 1/4 million trees will be available this fall and next spring from the two state nurseries. The species available for reforestation are jackpine, white pine and red pine seedlings and transplants. Game packets of 50 trees and shrubs will be available next spring for habitat improvement.

BAND STUDENTS of the Escanaba Area Public High School have opened their "Sweet Success" candy sale for the benefit of band program. Participating in the sale are (from left) Ben DeVoe, student teacher from Northern Michigan University, and students Steve Henslee, Steve Rolig and Lois Brayes. Proceeds are used for benefit of the band program including scholarships to band camp students. (Daily Press Photo)

Old Schooner To Be New Tourist Attraction In U.P.

MENOMINEE—Frank Hoffmann, 41, of Egg Harbor, said Monday that the 100 year old ship he and a crew of divers raised from the waters of Green Bay this summer will be turned into a tourist attraction here.

The vessel, believed to be the Alvin Clark which sank near Chambers island in 1864, will be docked at the Menominee harbor off highway 41 for tourists to see, Hoffmann said.

Construction Planned

He said he is planning construction of a marine museum and theater on harbor property owned by Joseph Kregoski, a Menominee contractor.

John Seaborg of Gjelsteen & Seaborg, Menominee architects, will design the theater—where films of the ship's raising will be shown—and the museum, where the ship's artifacts will be displayed.

City Eyed Purchase

Eventually, fishing shanties and other buildings will be constructed to form a fishing village and lumber port like those that existed in the area in the 19th century, Hoffmann said.

He said he planned to open the attraction by next summer. It will be an independent enterprise, he said. The city had been studying the purchase of the 100 year old ship for a similar purpose.

However, a decision on the purchase was delayed, pending a study of a proposed $2 million marina here.

Hoffmann said he plans to take the ship to Green Bay and Chicago, either this fall or in spring for preopening publicity.

The ship, now tied up at the Marinette Marine Corp. dock at Marinette, Wis., is believed to have gone down in a storm June 29, 1864.

The crew which helped surface the two masted schooner are in the process of being discovered by Hoffmann while he was freeing some fishing nets.

The ship was believed on its way to pick up a cargo of lumber when it sank.

Tire Prices Up

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—God-year Tire & Rubber Co. raised by 2 1/2 per cent its prices on most passenger, truck and farm tires and tubes, effective Wednesday.

The company said today rising production, material and distribution costs made the increases necessary.

Miss America To Dedicate Senior Citizens Tower

"It would be significant for young America to dedicate a project for an older generation," believes City Manager George Harvey.

And in this belief he has with the cooperation of Miss America Pageant arranged tentatively for Miss America to come to Escanaba on July 13, 1970, to dedicate the $2.6 million 18-story senior citizens apartment tower.

She is Miss Pamela Anne Eldred of Birmingham, Mich., who first as Miss Michigan won honors for her home state, then was chosen and crowned Miss America at Atlantic City last fall.

The city manager said he was encouraged in making the request for Miss America to come here when he learned that while the family resides now near Detroit, her parents were originally from Crystal Falls in the Upper Peninsula.

Miss America will be "available to us on July 13, 1970, to dedicate the Senior Citizens Housing project," Harvey reports. He has informed the City Council that he will discuss the matter with the Housing Commission and determine whether there is local interest in a dedication program.

Escanaba was host to an earlier Miss America—Nancy Anne Fleming of Montague—a few years ago when the Veterans of Foreign Wars fountain was dedicated in Ludington Park. The event won attention, turned the spotlight on Escanaba, and suggests an equally successful program in 1970, said Harvey.

Housing Plans Called 'Disgrace'

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—The general manager of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association says substandard housing is "a national disgrace."

Robert Partridge of Washington, D. C., told more than 500 delegates to the association's Region 4 convention here Monday that the organization has joined the campaign to help provide "a decent dwelling for every family in 10 years."

Partridge contended that more than half the nation's substandard housing is found in rural areas.

He also called for federal action to reduce interest rates. "High interest rates undermine every family," he said.

The association's Region 4 covers Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia.

Attendance Up At U.P. Parks

All but one State Park in the Upper Peninsula have shown an increase in park attendance through the Labor Day Holiday as compared to last year for the same time, report Department of Natural Resources (DNR) officials. Camp permits registered showed an increase in twelve of the fifteen Upper Peninsula State Parks over 1968.

The greatest increase in park attendance was registered at the Straits Park where the increase was reported as 45 per cent. During the season, 2,807 campers were turned away at this park. Tahquamenon Falls State Park showed an increase of 20 per cent in attendance and 17 per cent increase in camping permits issued. Because of filled campgrounds, 3,791 campers were turned away from this park, the DNR said. Tahquamenon Falls State Park also reported the greatest attendance at 450,998 for the same period.

Fayette State Park had a 10 per cent attendance increase over last year with over 110,000 visitors seeing the many historic features of the park, said DNR officials.

Indian Lake and Wells state parks showed a 2 and 3 per cent increase in attendance, respectively, reported the DNR.

The Porcupine Mountain State Park reported 165,427 in attendance there but this was the only decrease, 15 per cent, in attendance over last year. This same park, however, showed a 10 per cent increase in camp permits issued.

Brimley State Park reported their campground was filled on 43 consecutive nights. The previous high was 26 nights in 1968. Brimley also reported that 3,651 campers were turned away from this park this year. Incidentally, the number turned away was over 33 per cent of the total number of camps registered at this park, the DNR reported.

"The park visitor slump that usually occurs in mid-July did not materialize this year at Indian Lake State Park," according to Park Supervisor Vic Haas.

"Camping at the Porcupine Mountain State Park has held up beyond any other year," says Park Supervisor David Balbough.

"Attendance at Fort Wilkins at 196,824 has set a new record," according to Park Supervisor Ike Lundberg.

During late August, campers enjoyed the warm weather and many swimmers used the Union Bay Beach area, Balbough also reports from the Porcupine Mountain State Park.

"Consecutive 'full campground' nights at Van Riper State Park proper ended at 43," according to Park Supervisor Roger Clish; 7,292 camp permits were issued this year at this park, he added.

'King' Injured

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa (AP)—A former "king of the hoboes" suffered severe leg injuries along the Chicago and Northwestern tracks Monday and was hospitalized.

Police identify the man as the "Hard Rock Kid," or John Misen, 60. He was crowned hobo king in Britt, Iowa, in 1967 and 1968 at the annual National Hobo Convention.

It was not known how Misen's accident occurred.

Search Started For Daughter Of Ex-Boxing Champ

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—A search is under way in West Germany for Joan Tunney Wilkinson, daughter of former heavyweight boxing champion Gene Tunney, Hamburg police reported today.

They said the West German criminal office in Wiesbaden has been called into the case and that border crossing points are being watched. There is no indication of a crime, they added.

The 30-year-old woman was last seen early this month aboard the passenger ship Vikingfjord when it docked at the north German port of Cuxhaven after crossing from Norway, police reported.

Gene Tunney Jr., the woman's brother, and her husband, Carter Wilkinson, are helping with the search, police said.

A family spokesman said in Boston, Mass., Monday night that Mrs. Wilkinson was to have met her husband in Hamburg.

'Mame' A Hit In Opening

"Mame" isn't quite a hippy. She isn't quite an accepted member of society's upper crust, either.

But she and her friends did provide a basket of laughs and an evening of solid entertainment Monday night at the Escanaba Area High School auditorium as Players de Noc opened a five-day run of the popular musical comedy.

Directed by Peter D. Adamini, drama, and Marie K. Peterson, music, "Mame" moved swiftly through 18 years — 1928 to 1946 — and while her orphaned nephew, Patrick, grew up during that period, it didn't change Mame's outlook on life.

Love's Life

She came into the play loving life and living it to the hilt and exited the same way, even though when the stock market crashed in 1929 she was forced to go to work in a variety of occupations.

A bit part she received in a play through her friendship with Vera Charles provided one of the play's sparkling moments when Miss Charles, after singing "The Man In The Moon Is A Lady," exclaimed "the man in the moon is a bitch" as Mame fell off the moon.

Arlene Hendrickson, who is serving her second year as secretary of Players de Noc, was excellent in the role of "Mame" as was Coralie Puglisi as Vera Charles. Mary Lee DeGrand, who played Agnes, the prudish maid who turned up pregnant after "living" like Mame suggested, was marvelous.

When Mame asked, "What Happened?" Agnes answered "I opened a new window," but "What do I do now?"

Patricks Impress

The Patricks — Bill Wertz, a sixth grade student and son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wertz of Escanaba, as younger Patrick and Jim Bruce, who made his stage debut as older Patrick — also were impressive.

Other main characters included Richard Mareng as Babcock, Jim Moore at Ito and Harold Olson as Beauregard Jackson Pickett Burnside.

Musically, although one of the major numbers was shortened slightly from the Broadway version, the production was excellent. The orchestration even included a banjo, played by Albert Rockstead, in what must be a "first" for drama in Escanaba.

"Mame" will continue tonight, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It's an enjoyable evening. — Dave Andrews.

Joint Meeting

DETROIT (AP)—A joint meeting of the Detroit City Council, the Detroit Board of Education and New Detroit Inc., scheduled for Wednesday, has been postponed until after the November election to allow new council members to sit in.

School Supt. Norman Drachler said he would like to feel free to request an earlier meeting should the situation warrant it.

Mrs. Mary Reno Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Mary C. Reno, 62, of 17 S. 2nd St., Wells, died suddenly at her home Monday at 1 p. m.

She was born on Nov. 17, 1906, in Powers and had resided in Wells for the past 20 years. She was a member of St. Anthony's Church, St. Anthony's Guild and the Daughters of Isabella.

Her husband, Earl E. Reno, preceded her in death on June 20, 1968.

She is survived by two sons, Allen and Earl, both of Escanaba; three daughters, Mrs. Clarence (Joan) Robitaille, Mrs. Walter (Beverly) Menard and Mrs. Wayne (Judith) Bernthume, all of Escanaba; four sisters, Mrs. Rose Belongie of Calif., Mrs. Joseph (Blanche) Forgette of Iron Mountain, Mrs. Louis (Evelyn) Pintal of Escanaba and Mrs. Eugene (Edith) Rumpf of Kingstord; one brother, Jerry LeBlanc of Hermansville and 21 grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Allo Funeral Home Wednesday from 3 to 9:30 p. m. The Daughters of Isabella will recite the Rosary at 4 p. m. Wednesday and parish prayers will be said Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 10 a. m. at St. Anthony's Church with the Rev. Norbert Freiburger officiating. Burial will be in the Escanaba Township Cemetery.

Order Trees Now For Future Stock

Order blanks are now available at the District headquarters and Forestry Division offices of the Department of Natural Resources for planting stock from the State Forest Nurseries at Manistique and Brighton, Michigan.

Carlton Hollister, Nursery Superintendent of the Wyman Nursery, reports that a total of 7 1/2 million trees will be available this fall and next spring from the two state nurseries. The species available for reforestation are jackpine, white pine and red pine seedlings and transplants. Game packets of 50 trees and shrubs will be available next spring for habitat improvement.

Attendance Up At U.P. Parks

All but one State Park in the Upper Peninsula have shown an increase in park attendance through the Labor Day Holiday as compared to last year for the same time, report Department of Natural Resources (DNR) officials. Camp permits registered showed an increase in twelve of the fifteen Upper Peninsula State Parks over 1968.

The greatest increase in park attendance was registered at the Straits Park where the increase was reported as 45 per cent. During the season, 2,807 campers were turned away at this park. Tahquamenon Falls State Park showed an increase of 20 per cent in attendance and 17 per cent increase in camping

Old Schooner To Be New Tourist Attraction In U.P.

MENOMINEE—Frank Hoffmann, 41, of Egg Harbor, said Monday that the 100 year old ship he and a crew of divers raised from the waters of Green Bay this summer will be turned into a tourist attraction here.

The vessel, believed to be the Alvin Clark which sank near Chambers island in 1864, will be docked at the Menominee harbor off highway 41 for tourists to see, Hoffmann said.

Construction Planned He said he is planning construction of a marine museum and theater on harbor property owned by Joseph Kregoski, a Menominee contractor.

John Seaborg of Gjelsteen & Seaborg, Menominee architects, will design the theater—where films of the ship's raising will be shown—and the museum, where the ship's artifacts will be displayed.

City Eyed Purchase Eventually, fishing shanties and other buildings will be constructed to form a fishing village and lumber port like those that existed in the area in the 19th century, Hoffmann said.

He said he planned to open the attraction by next summer. It will be an independent enterprise, he said. The city had been studying the purchase of the 100 year old ship for a similar purpose.

However, a decision on the purchase was delayed, pending a study of a proposed $2 mil-

S. African Quake Kills 11 Persons

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP)—An earthquake that rocked 1,000 miles of South Africa's eastern coast from Cape Town to Durban Monday night killed 11 persons, injured scores and left hundreds homeless, officials said.

There were no injuries in Cape Town but tall buildings swayed and hundreds of frightened residents scurried into the streets.

Hoffmann said he plans to take the ship to Green Bay and Chicago, either this fall or in spring for preopening publicity.

The ship, now tied up at the Marinette Marine Corp. dock at Marinette, Wis., is believed to have gone down in a storm June 29, 1864.

The crew which helped surface the two masted schooner are in the process of kiln drying the vessel which had been discovered by Hoffmann while he was freeing some fishing nets.

The ship was believed on its way to pick up a cargo of lumber when it sank.

Tire Prices Up

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Good-year Tire & Rubber Co. raised by 2 1/2 per cent its prices on most passenger, truck and farm tires and tubes, effective Wednesday.

The company said today rising production, material and distribution costs made the increases necessary.

Miss America To Dedicate Senior Citizens Tower

"It would be significant for young America to dedicate a project for an older generation," believes City Manager George Harvey.

And in this belief he has with the cooperation of Miss America Pageant arranged tentatively for Miss America to come to Escanaba on July 13, 1970, to dedicate the $2.6 million 18-story senior citizens apartment tower.

She is Miss Pamela Anne Eldred of Birmingham, Mich., who first as Miss Michigan won honors for her home state, then was chosen and crowned Miss America at Atlantic City last fall.

The city manager said he was encouraged in making the request for Miss America to come here when he learned that while the family resides now near Detroit, her parents were originally from Crystal Falls in the Upper Peninsula.

Miss America will be "available to us on July 13, 1970, to dedicate the Senior Citizens Housing project," Harvey reports. He has informed the City Council that he will discuss the matter with the Housing Commission and determine whether there is local interest in a dedication program.

Escanaba was host to an earlier Miss America—Nancy Anne Fleming of Montague—a few years ago when the Veterans of Foreign Wars fountain was dedicated in Ludington Park. The event won attention, turned the spotlight on Escanaba, and suggests an equally successful program in 1970, said Harvey.

Housing Plans Called 'Disgrace'

TRAVERSE CITY (AP)—The general manager of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association says substandard housing is "a national disgrace."

Robert Partridge of Washington, D. C., told more than 500 delegates to the association's Region 4 convention here Monday that the organization has joined the campaign to help provide "a decent dwelling for every family in 10 years."

Partridge contended that more than half the nation's substandard housing is found in rural areas.

He also called for federal action to reduce interest rates. "High interest rates undermine every family," he said.

The association's Region 4 covers Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia.

ASKS "TAX JUSTICE" — AFL-CIO President George Meany tells the Senate Finance Committee in Washington that the nation's union members are tired of paying taxes that the well-to-do escape. He opposes administration proposals for changes in the House bill, which he says, would widen loopholes and "bear no resemblance at all to tax justice."

Labor Hits At Economy Plan

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — An organized labor group said today President Nixon is wiping out jobs, particularly for Negroes, by policies designed to slow the economy in the battle against inflation.

"Administration actions," said a report by the AFL-CIO Maritime Trades Department, "make it appear that it is willing to attack inflation by sacrificing workers in the front lines of the battle."

The report to convention delegates representing 7.5 million workers in 42 maritime trades unions cited government figures showing that Negro unemployment is double the percentage for white workers.

It called on the Nixon administration to set as a prime goal the reduction of joblessness among Negroes. "This goal must be achieved without any increase in white unemployment," the report said.

It said that since Nixon took office in January, the nation's unemployment total has increased by 279,000 to 2.8 million while the administration fostered policies designed to curb the sharpest U.S. inflationary spiral in 18 years.

It said government policies leading to high interest rates, federal budget cuts and Nixon's cutback in federal construction are major factors in rising unemployment.

"For the 279,000 additional jobless people—those finding it difficult to clothe, feed and house themselves and their families—there was little comfort in the knowledge that by being unemployed they were helping to fight inflation," the report said.

"The group hardest hit by this increase in unemployment was the young, nonwhite worker. Many of these were core-city teenagers who had completed union—and government—sponsored training programs and were seeking their first jobs."

Griffin Target Of State Demos Over 'Standards'

MUSKEGON (AP) — Democratic Party Chairman James McNeely charged Sunday that Sen. Robert Griffin, R-Michigan, has a double standard when it comes to approving presidential nominations to the State Supreme Court.

McNeely spoke before a ninth district Democratic meeting at Muskegon.

"When a Democratic President nominated Abe Fortas to be chief justice, Sen. Griffin became a crusader for a Supreme Court blessed with justices of unquestionable integrity, untainted by partisan politics," McNeely said.

"Sen. Griffin told us how he wanted to save the country from crass political manipulation."

"Now a Republican President has nominated Judge Clement Haynsworth to the court," the Democratic leader said. "Judge Haynsworth has some fascinating 18th century views about when the courts should protect the rights of blacks and when they shouldn't."

McNeely also charged Haynsworth "has a way of siding with management in labor disputes."

"Despite this failure by Haynsworth to meet accepted judicial standards, Sen. Griffin has been very quiet," he said.

Bet Paid Off

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (AP) — The vice president paid off his bet in Maryland crabs—12 of them.

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, a Baltimore Colt fan, had a bet with Rep. Clark MacGregor, R-Minn., on the outcome of the Minnesota Vikings-Cowboys game Sunday. The Vikings won 52-14.

MacGregor said his end of the wager was for a pound of Minnesota wild rice and added Agnew was taking the loss "kind of crabby."

Art Work Needed

An art exhibit is in the planning stages by the newly formed Art Club of Escanaba. It will open Sunday, Oct. 12 at the Medcenter and anyone in the Escanaba - Gladstone area wishing to exhibit framed art work is to call Mrs. John Sheilander, 786-1723. The exhibits should be at the Medcenter by Thursday, Oct. 2.

THE YOUNG COUPLE in the foreground, Bob Lucas and his bride, who wished to be known only as "Blue," were united in marriage Sunday by Ravi Kristin (kneeling beside them) in that Kristin described as, "a combination of Hindu, pagan and Polynesian," wedding styles. A bridal party of about 150 hippies who congregated every weekend near the Volker Fountain in midtown Kansas City, made up the bridal party. The white thread around the couple is part of the ritual. State Orders City Halt Air Pollution At Asphalt Plant

By CLINT DUNATHAN

The City of Escanaba has been put on notice by the Department of Public Health that it must halt air pollution caused by its asphalt plant operation or close the plant.

Bernard D. Bloomfield, assistant chief, Division of Occupational Health, Michigan Department of Public Health, has advised the city:

"Please be informed that our staff has submitted a report to the Michigan Air Pollution Control Commission indicating that your asphalt plant is not operated in compliance with our rules and regulations. Upon learning this at the time of its Sept. 16, 1969, meeting, the Commission asked that you be given the opportunity to relate your plans concerning air pollution control."

Bloomfield asks the city to reply by letter whether "you agree at this time to take whatever steps are necessary to install and have operative by the spring of 1970 air pollution control equipment which will enable compliance with our rules."

Meet Here Oct. 28
 "In the event you cannot achieve satisfactory control and you start up operations in the spring in Michigan, immediate action will be taken by the Commission to have you cease operations," Bloomfield wrote.

"The Michigan Air Pollution Control Commission plans to meet in Escanaba on Oct. 28, 1969. You are advised to plan on attending this meeting if, for any reason, you will be unable to comply with our requirements," the city was advised.

The notice to the City of Escanaba followed an investigation of complaints by residents of the area in which the plant is located at the city's west side. The asphalt plant produces the asphalt mix used by the city in the surfacing and resurfacing of streets and alleys. The plant has now virtually completed its operations for this year.

Questions now before the city administration and ultimately for decision by the City Council have to do with the economics of the operation — if it is brought up to the state standards required for control of air pollution.

Study Under Way
 "We must find out the cost of the devices necessary for control of air pollution, determine if the plant will have the capabilities to meet our needs in the future, and whether it may not be more economical for the city to go to a private source and purchase the asphalt we need," said City Manager George Harvey.

These studies are already under way with the assistance of Ken Tushak, superintendent of the public works department, and when the information is compiled it will be submitted to the City Council with a recommendation, Harvey added.

Escanaba has a long and favorable record of street construction and maintenance through its public works department. The cost to the people of the municipality has been less than if the projects were contracted.

Know No Boundaries
 In his examination of the problem of air pollution control, the city manager consulted with Lawrence C. Savage, Traverse City city manager. Near Traverse City the Northern Reduction Co. has been cited by the Michigan Air Pollution Control Commission and the firm has been given a schedule through which after-burners and other equipment will be added to their operations to combat the odor problem.

Traverse City itself does not have a specific air pollution control ordinance, but a general type of ordinance concerning emission of smoke.

"As Northern Reduction Co. is located outside the city, we have not been able to enforce any of the provisions of city ordinances against them and it has been the County Board of Supervisors who have taken action against the specific odors. They have brought a civil suit against the company," Traverse City Manager Savage reported.

"It would be my suggestion, for the very reasons that we have the type of problem as this, that any smoke control or air pollution control ordinance be established at the county level because these types of nuisances know no boundaries," he added.

rektor of the Michigan Department of Commerce, made an Upper Peninsula-wide tour recently almost every one of the 10 major U. P. cities visited asked state-federal aid with their problems of meeting new higher standards for water treatment and for sewage and wastewater disposal.

Field Enterprises' "go ahead" signal for the Manistique mill project brightens prospects for wood industry in the Upper Peninsula's east end, which has had a chronic wood surplus because of its distance from Wisconsin, which has been the prime wood market for Upper Peninsula pulping woods. More than 60 per cent of U. P. pulpwood is made in paper in Wisconsin, creating a much higher level of family income in the Fox and Wisconsin River Valleys than in the Upper Peninsula.

Makes Own Pulp
 The Manistique mill is now operating on pulps made from Upper Peninsula wood in its own groundwood mill and on the repulping of de-linked waste paper shipped to Manistique from the Chicago area, one of the world's greatest printing centers.

Manistique Pulp & Paper Co. is one of 23 national and international divisions and subsidiaries of Field Enterprises, Inc., Chicago.

Obituary
EDWARD EHLERS

Complete funeral services for Edward Ehlers were held at 1:30 p. m. today at the Anderson Funeral Home with the Rev. David Liscomb officiating. Burial was in Lakeview Cemetery.

Dismissal Expected
 Edward Bennett Williams, a Washington, D.C. lawyer, who arrived Sunday to take charge of Rheaull's defense, said he expected eventual dismissal because public opinion "ranged from mild indignation to outrage" and "in all my years as an attorney, I have never been in a case where public opinion was so clearly on one side."

Deadline Today For Doe Permits
 Robert Timmer of Escanaba, district law supervisor for the Department of Natural Resources, reminded hunters that today is the last day to make application for antlerless deer hunting permits for the 1969 firearm season.

Timmer said applications must be postmarked by midnight today for hunters to be eligible.

Ben E. Helmer Is Postulant

Ben E. Helmer

Ben E. Helmer, 21-year-old son of the Rev. and Mrs. Ben F. Helmer, 220 S. 4th St., has been accepted by the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan as a postulant, and is now a student at General Theological Seminary, New York, N. Y. His father is rector of St. Stephen's, Escanaba.

General Theological Seminary, official seminary of the Episcopal church, was established by the General Convention May 27, 1817. It is located in Chelsea Square near Greenwich Village. It prepares men for the Episcopal priesthood through a three year program of academic study augmented through practical experience gained through working with local churches and institutions.

Mr. Helmer was graduated from Escanaba Area High School in 1965. He was a member of the National Honor Society and received the Rotary award. While in High School he was especially active in the music department as a member of the chorus and as a double bass player in the orchestra.

In June he was graduated from Michigan State University with a B. A. degree in English. In college he continued his musical studies and played with the MSU Symphony and several other campus groups.

He has been active in the Boy Scouts of America, attaining the Eagle rank. He also received the Vigil Honor, highest award of the Order of the Arrow, National Scout Honor Camp organization. For several summers he worked on the staff of the Hiawathaland Council Scout Camps.

During the past summer, Mr. Helmer was employed by the Diocese of Northern Michigan on the staff at the Diocese's Conference during the youth conferences in June. During July and August he was in charge of the Diocese's summer program at the Church of the Transfiguration, Pte. Aux Pins, on Bois Blanc Island in the Straits of Mackinac.

 Auxiliary Meet
 A special meeting of the Tony Revord Post 244 Auxiliary will be held Wednesday, Oct. 1, at 7 p. m. at the Fleece Farm. All members are urged to attend as plans will be finalized for the special meeting to be held Oct. 7 when Mrs. Shirley Oczus, Health and Social Supervisor for the Community Action Agency for Menominee, Delta and Schoolcraft Counties, will be guest speaker.

Sgt. Gordon Poupore arrived in Powers Sept. 20 after a year at Udorn Royal Thai AFB, Thailand. Sgt. Poupore is a 1965 graduate of Salvationary Seminary, St. Nazianz, Wis., attended Bay de Noc Community College for a year and entered service in October '68.

He took his basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and received training as an airframe repairman at Amarillo AFB, Tex., and Holloman AFB, N. M. before being sent to Thailand in September '68.

Sgt. and Mrs. Poupore, the former Marlene St. John, will leave Oct. 8 for Osoda, Mich. where he will report for duty at Wurtsmith AFB.

Permanent Tax Plan For All 83 Counties Aired

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Officials of Michigan's 83 counties have started searching for a unified and permanent tax plan to finance the needs of county governments.

A. Barry McGuire, executive director of the Michigan Association of Counties, has written officials in each county asking for their suggestions to recommend to the Legislature.

The association has also appointed a three-man committee to screen the suggestions and send the best ones to the state organization.

McGuire said "We must take the lead in presenting our needs and positive programs to the Legislature, which is often unaware of our problems, instead of waiting for them to tell us what we can do."

P&H Predicts Losing Quarter

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Henry Harnischfeger, president of Harnischfeger Corp., today announced an expected loss for the fourth fiscal quarter ending Oct. 31, which could amount to as much as $1.5 million, depending upon October operations and year-end audit adjustments.

According to Harnischfeger, a significant part of the loss will consist of write-offs of development, prototype and startup costs on several large military contracts, major portions of which are to be completed in 1970.

The military equipment is being built at Harnischfeger's Escanaba construction equipment plant, which during 1969, has experienced production delays due to extensive expansion and facility rearrangement. An additional factor cited by Harnischfeger is the previously reported cost of starting up the new Cedar Rapids, Iowa, hydraulic construction equipment plant and product line.

Consolidated fourth quarter shipments should exceed this year's third quarter as well as last year's fourth quarter.

This would result in total shipments in excess of $140 million for 1969, compared to the $134 million shipped in 1968, which included the welding products division sold to the Chemtron Corp. of Chicago, Ill., in January, 1969.

Giving effect to a fourth quarter loss of the magnitude stated above, 1969 consolidated earnings would approximate $1.60 per share, including the extraordinary gain of $1.22 per share which resulted from the sale of the above mentioned division.

Harnischfeger also said, "In spite of the adverse effect of the fourth quarter loss on the 1969 earnings, we are confident that the investments in these new plant facilities in Escanaba and Cedar Rapids, and the product line improvements that have been made in 1969, will permit improved earnings in 1970 and consistent growth in the longer range future."

Group Shakes Up Salt Firm Merger
 WASHINGTON (AP) — The government warned a Dutch chemical company Tuesday that its proposed acquisition of the International Salt Co. might violate antitrust law.

The Justice Department said it had informed attorneys for Koninklijke Zout-Organon N.V. and International Salt that it had investigated the merger proposal.

The conclusion, the department said, was that "acquisition of International Salt's stock by KZO pursuant to the current tender offer raises very serious and substantial questions" under provisions of the Clayton Antitrust Act.

The Dutch firm was requested to delay acceptance of the tendered International Salt stock for 30 days.

Escapee Caught, Second At Large At Manistique

MANISTIQUE — A walkaway from the Schoolcraft County Jail was apprehended at 10:19 this morning on U. S. 2 near Garden Corners. A second prisoner, Aaron Ziegler, was still at large as of noon today.

Thomas H. Coleman, 25, was spotted hitchhiking on U. S. 2 near Cooks by residents of that area, who notified State Police. Sgt. Paul Uerling, commander of the local state police post, and Sheriff Lloyd Gray picked up the Orwin, Pa., man shortly after receiving the report. Coleman offered no resistance.

He was returned to a cell in the Schoolcraft County Jail about 10:45 and refused to comment on where Ziegler, the other walkaway, might be.

Ran Out Door
 Coleman and his cellmate, Ziegler, 19-year-old Manistique resident, walked out the main entrance of the jail at 5:55 Monday night and ran in the general direction of the fairgrounds area, just over the Lake St. hill near the jail, the sheriff's department said.

Deputy Sheriff Matt Skarritt said Ziegler and Coleman were returning to their second floor cells after picking out reading material from a room down the hall. A third prisoner had not returned from the reading room and as Skarritt turned his back on the two, who were walking down the corridor toward their cell, they suddenly bolted through the downstairs door, ran down the stairs to the jail's office and through the front door, he said.

Ziegler, who lived on Garden Ave., in Manistique, was jailed Sept. 9 for a probation violation on a breaking and entering offense. He recently returned to Manistique from Escanaba, where he was employed.

Description Noted
 Ziegler's description notes a height of 5 feet, 8 inches; weight of 140 pounds; medium build with brown eyes and black hair. He was wearing dark clothes at the time of his escape.

Coleman, in jail since his Aug. 31 arrest on a gross indecency charge involving a male minor, is awaiting a Circuit Court arraignment. He was bound to the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court on Sept. 24, and was ordered jailed in lieu of $1,000 cash or $10,000 surety bond.

A vigorous search was undertaken by local law enforcement agencies following the escape. A dog from State Police Headquarters in Marquette was used, but because of rain, the dog was unable to retain a scent of the escapees. All agencies are co-operating in the search.

Anyone seeing Ziegler is asked to notify the Manistique Public Safety Dept., at 341-5400 or the State Police at 341-2101.

Ovila Groleau Dies On Monday

Ovila Francis Groleau, 62, of 211 N. 18th St., was dead on arrival at St. Francis Hospital at 4:15 p. m. Monday. He was born Feb. 11, 1907 in St. Jacques and was employed as an operating engineer in construction work.

He is survived by his widow, the former Dorothy Brandt; two daughters, Mrs. Chris (Edith) Bellone of Rockford and Mrs. Valerie Yother of Albion; two sons, Allen of Rockford and Alfred of Grayling; 14 grandchildren and two stepdaughters, Mrs. John (Darlene) Prokos and Mrs. James (Judy) Christensen of Escanaba; two sisters, Mrs. Henry (Cecile) Ross of Gladstone and Mrs. Aurora Olson of Stonington; five brothers, Albert of Traverse City, Herman of Muskegon, Henry of Murdock, Neb., Lawrence of Wethersford, Texas, and William of Rock.

Friends may call at the Skradski Funeral Home after 4 p. m. Wednesday and funeral services will be conducted at 2 p. m. Thursday at the funeral home with the Rev. Arnold Thompson officiating. Burial will be in Rapid River Cemetery.

'Mame' Guest Of Kiwanians

Escanaba Kiwanians were introduced to the newest and most exciting woman in the city at their weekly luncheon meeting, as "Mame" entertained them at lunch Monday noon.

"Mame" produced by the Players de Noc, Inc., under the direction of Peter Adamini and Mrs. Marie K. Peterson, opened to a full house Monday night.

Cast members who were present at the luncheon along with Adamini and Mrs. Peterson were Mrs. Arlene Hendrickson (Mame), Coralie Puglisi (Vera Charles), Mary Lee DeGrand (Agnes Gooch), Bill Wertz (Young Patrick Dennis), Jim Bruce (the older Patrick Dennis), and Jim Moore (Ito).

The numbers which the cast performed were "St. Bridget," by Agnes and young Dennis, "We Need A Little Christmas," by Mame, Agnes, Pat and Ito, "Mame" Reprise, by the young and older Patrick, "My Best Girl" older Patrick, "How Young I Feel" by Mame, "Bottom Buddies" by Vera Mame. Adamini and Mrs. Peterson said that although tickets were moving fast, there should still be tickets available at the door for the production on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

In other action at the meeting, president Arol Beck who finished his term of office with Monday's meeting, thanked all the officers, committee chairmen and Kiwanians for their support during his term.

Chairman Earl Delforge conducted the induction of new members Richard E. Olson, Richard Barron and John Winnerski.

Bilking Of Gls Being Probed
 WASHINGTON (AP) — A retired Army general and some top-rated sergeants are expected to testify before a Senate subcommittee investigating charges that American servicemen were bilked of hundreds of thousands of dollars through operations of base recreation clubs.

A spokesman for the Senate permanent investigations subcommittee said leadoff witnesses at the hearings, which open today, would explain club operations in Germany and Vietnam with retired Maj. Gen. Carl C. Turner and the sergeants probably to be called next week.

The subcommittee has declined to give any specifics about the scope of the hearings and as far as is known no criminal charges have been filed against any one.

But there have been numerous published reports in recent weeks that subcommittee investigators have uncovered a network through which Army personnel and some civilians have reaped huge profits by selling supplies for enlisted men's clubs to the Army.

State Orders City Halt Air Pollution At Asphalt Plant

By CLINT DUNATHAN

The City of Escanaba has been put on notice by the Department of Public Health that it must halt air pollution caused by its asphalt plant operation or close the plant.

Bernard D. Bloomfield, assistant chief, Division of Occupational Health, Michigan Department of Public Health, has advised the city:

"Please be informed that our staff has submitted a report to the Michigan Air Pollution Control Commission indicating that your asphalt plant is not operated in compliance with our rules and regulations. Upon learning this at the time of its Sept. 16, 1969, meeting, the Commission asked that you be given the opportunity to relate your plans concerning air pollution control."

Bloomfield asks the city to reply by letter whether "you agree at this time to take whatever steps are necessary to install and have operative by the spring of 1970 air pollution control equipment which will enable compliance with our rules."

Meet Here Oct. 28

"In the event you cannot achieve satisfactory control and you start up operations in the spring in Michigan, immediate action will be taken by the

New York City and Sgt. I. C. Alvin L. Smith Jr., 41, of Naples, Fla. Their charges were held in abeyance pending the trials of the other six.

Rheault said several of his comrades were near the end of their service obligation and had expressed intentions to leave the Army before the murder case developed in June.

Judgment Withheld

As for himself, Rheault said, "I withhold judgment." But he added that their careers "may certainly be colored by this incident."

Marasco, named by the Army charges as the trigger man in the slaying, expressed dissatisfaction with the reason given for dismissal of the charges.

"I am not satisfied with his (Resor's) statement, but I don't know what I will do about it."

Marasco, who rose from private to captain in three years, said he would leave the Army when his present active duty tour was up next April and return to civilian life.

Fly To Nha Trang

Six of the men, excluding Rheault, flew to Nha Trang this morning, the 5th Special Forces headquarters 200 miles north-east of Saigon, to collect their gear and return to Bien Hoa airbase, adjoining Long Binh. They were slated to leave for the United States tonight.

At Nha Trang, where the slaying allegedly occurred last June 20, no welcome was staged, but one sergeant said: "I think everybody is happy it's over."

An officer said: "A thing like this has got to affect morale. It hasn't affected our actual operations . . . We have been going on as usual. But it's useless to say we have been happy about the whole thing."

Dismissal Expected

Edward Bennett Williams, a Washington, D.C. lawyer who arrived Sunday to take charge of Rheault's defense, said he expected eventual dismissal because public opinion "ranged from mild indignation to outrage" and "in all my years as an attorney, I have never been in a case where public opinion was so clearly on one side."

Commission to have you cease operations," Bloomfield wrote.

"The Michigan Air Pollution Control Commission plans to meet in Escanaba on Oct. 28, 1969. You are advised to plan on attending this meeting if, for any reason, you will be unable to comply with our requirements," the city was advised.

The notice to the City of Escanaba followed an investigation of complaints by residents of the area in which the plant is located at the city's west side.

The asphalt plant produces the asphalt mix used by the city in the surfacing and resurfacing of streets and alleys. The plant has now virtually completed its operations for this year.

Questions now before the city administration and ultimately for decision by the City Council have to do with the economics of the operation — if it is brought up to the state standards required for control of air pollution.

Study Under Way

"We must find out the cost of the devices necessary for control of air pollution, determine if the plant will have the capabilities to meet our needs in the future, and whether it may not be more economical for the city to go to a private source and purchase the asphalt we need," said City Manager George Harvey.

These studies are already under way with the assistance of Ken Tushak, superintendent of the public works department, and when the information is compiled it will be submitted to the City Council with a recommendation, Harvey added.

Escanaba has a long and favorable record of street construction and maintenance through its public works department. The cost to the people of the municipality has been less than if the projects were contracted.

In his examination of the problem of air pollution control, the city manager consult-

Field Enterprises' "go ahead" signal for the Manistique mill project brightens prospects for wood industry in the Upper Peninsula's east end, which has had a chronic wood surplus because of its distance from Wisconsin, which has been the prime wood market for Upper Peninsula pulping woods. More than 60 per cent of U. P. pulpwood is made in paper in Wisconsin, creating a much higher level of family income in the Fox and Wisconsin River Valleys than in the Upper Peninsula.

The Manistique mill is now operating on pulps made from Upper Peninsula wood in its own groundwood mill and on the repulping of de-inked waste paper shipped to Manistique from the Chicago area, one of the world's greatest printing centers.

Manistique Pulp & Paper Co. is one of 23 national and international divisions and subsidiaries of Field Enterprises, Inc., Chicago.

ed with Lawrence C. Savage, Traverse City city manager. Near Traverse City the Northern Reduction Co. has been cited by the Michigan Air Pollution Control Commission and the firm has been given a schedule through which after-burners and other equipment will be added to their operations to combat the odor problem.

Traverse City itself does not have a specific air pollution control ordinance, but a general type of ordinance concerning emission of smoke.

"As Northern Reduction Co. is located outside the city, we have not been able to enforce any of the provisions of city ordinances against them and it has been the County Board of Supervisors who have taken action against the specific odor. They have brought a civil suit against the company," Traverse City Manager Savage reported.

"It would be my suggestion, for the very reasons that we have the type of problem as this, that any smoke control or air pollution control ordinance be established at the county level because these types of nuisances know no boundaries," he added.

General Theological Seminary, official seminary of the Episcopal church, was established by the General Convention May 27, 1817. It is located in Chelsea Square near Greenwich Village. It prepares men for the Episcopal priesthood through a three year program of academic study augmented by practical experience gained through working with local churches and institutions.

Mr. Helmer was graduated from Escanaba Area High School in 1965. He was a member of the National Honor Society and received the Rotary award. While in High School he was especially active in the music department as a member of the chorus and as a double bass player in the orchestra.

In June he was graduated from Michigan State University with a B. A. degree in English. In college he continued his musical studies and played with the MSU Symphony and several other campus groups.

He has been active in the Boy Scouts of America, attaining the Eagle rank. He also received the Vigil Honor, highest award of the Order of the Arrow, National Scout Honor Camp organization. For several summers he worked on the staff of the Hiawathaland Council Scout Camps.

During the past summer, Mr. Helmer was employed by the Diocese of Northern Michigan on the staff at the Diocese's Conference during the youth conferences in June. During July and August he was in charge of the Diocese's summer program at the Church of the Transfiguration, Pte. Aux Pins, on Bois Blanc Island in the Straits of Mackinac.

Permanent Tax Plan For All 83 Counties Aired

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)— Officials of Michigan's 83 counties have started searching for a unified and permanent tax plan to finance the needs of county governments.

A. Barry McGuire, executive director of the Michigan Association of Counties, has written officials in each county asking for their suggestions to recommend to the Legislature.

The association has also appointed a three-man committee to screen the suggestions and send the best ones to the state organization.

McGuire said "We must take the lead in presenting our needs and positive programs to the Legislature, which is often unaware of our problems, instead of waiting for them to tell us what we can do."

P&H Predicts Losing Quarter

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Henry Harnischfeger, president of Harnischfeger Corp., today announced an expected loss for the fourth fiscal quarter ending Oct. 31, which could amount to as much as $1.5 million, depending upon October operations and year-end audit adjustments.

According to Harnischfeger, a significant part of the loss will consist of write-offs of development, prototype and startup costs on several large military contracts, major portions of which are to be completed in 1970.

The military equipment is being built at Harnischfeger's Escanaba construction equipment plant, which during 1969, has experienced production delays due to extensive expansion and facility rearrangement. An additional factor cited by Harnischfeger is the previously reported cost of starting up the new Cedar Rapids, Iowa, hydraulic construction equipment plant and product line.

Consolidated fourth quarter shipments should exceed this year's third quarter as well as last year's fourth quarter.

This would result in total shipments in excess of $140 million for 1969, compared to the $134 million shipped in 1968, which included the welding products division sold to the Cheltron Corp. of Chicago, Ill., in January, 1969.

Giving effect to a fourth quarter loss of the magnitude stated above, 1969 consolidated earnings would approximate $1.60 per share, including the extraordinary gain of $1.22 per share which resulted from the sale of the above mentioned division.

Harnischfeger also said, "In spite of the adverse effect of the fourth quarter loss on the 1969 earnings, we are confident that the investments in these new plant facilities in Escanaba and Cedar Rapids, and the product line improvements that have been made in 1969, will permit improved earnings in 1970 and consistent growth in the longer range future."

Richard McGee Dies Today

Richard McGee, 57, formerly of Escanaba, died today at the Veterans' Hospital in Tomah, Wis. He was born Aug. 2, 1912 in Hiles, Wis. He was a member of the VFW in Escanaba.

He is survived by two brothers, Donald of Benton Harbor and Vincent of Rockford.

The body will be taken to the Boyce Funeral Home and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

He took his basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and received training as an airframe repairman at Amarillo AFB, Tex., and Holloman AFB, N. M. before being sent to Thailand in September '68.

Sgt. and Mrs. Poupore, the former Marlene St. John, will leave Oct. 8 for Osceola, Mich. where he will report for duty at Wurtsmith AFB.

Escapée Caught, Second At Large At Manistique

MANISTIQUE — A walkaway from the Schoolcraft County Jail was apprehended at 10:19 this morning on U. S. 2 near Garden Corners. A second prisoner, Aaron Ziegler, was still at large as of noon today.

Thomas H. Coleman, 25, was spotted hitchhiking on U. S. 2 near Cooks by residents of that area, who notified State Police. Sgt. Paul Uerling, commander of the local state police post, and Sheriff Lloyd Gray picked up the Orwin, Pa., man shortly after receiving the report. Coleman offered no resistance.

He was returned to a cell in the Schoolcraft County Jail about 10:45 and refused to comment on where Ziegler, the other walkaway, might be.

Ran Out Door

Coleman and his cellmate, Ziegler, 19-year-old Manistique resident, walked out the main entrance of the jail at 5:55 Monday night and ran in the general direction of the fairgrounds area, just over the Lake St.

Group Shakes Up Salt Firm Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government warned a Dutch chemical company Tuesday that its proposed acquisition of the International Salt Co. might violate antitrust law.

The Justice Department said it had informed attorneys for Koninklijke Zout-Organon N.V. and International Salt that it had investigated the merger proposal.

The conclusion, the department said, was that "acquisition of International Salt's stock by KZO pursuant to the current tender offer raises very serious and substantial questions" under provisions of the Clayton Antitrust Act.

The Dutch firm was requested to delay acceptance of the tendered International Salt stock for 30 days.

Briefly Told

An immunization clinic will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. at the Carney-Nadeau School. Dr. Mary Cretens will conduct the clinic.

Escanaba police have issued traffic court notices to Eleanor Y. Petola, 1909 5th Ave. S., failing to exercise due care; Barbara L. Wallin, 220 N. 11th St., failing to stop in the assured clear distance; and Lynn E. Petaja, 1130 N. 16th St., disobeying a traffic signal.

Methodist Men of the First United Methodist Church will have a chicken barbecue on Saturday, Oct. 4 at 6 p. m. Arrangements will be in charge of Richard Bucksar. For reservations, call Donald Ness or David Liscomb before Friday. All men of the church are urged to attend.

Educators attending the Michigan Education Association (Teachers) convention in Escanaba Thursday and Friday will be presented a carnation, courtesy of the Escanaba Area Chamber of Commerce, Walter G. Lewke, chamber manager, said today. Members of the Senior Citizens Committee of the Chamber, John J. Bartella and Rev. Karl J. Hammar, co-chairmen, will have courtesy cars available for the convention at the Escanaba Area High School. The 23rd street overhead sign will welcome the teachers and city flags will be on display for the two-day meeting.

'Mame' Guest Of Kiwanians

Escanaba Kiwanians were introduced to the newest and most exciting woman in the city at their weekly luncheon meeting, as "Mame" entertained them at lunch Monday noon.

"Mame" produced by the Players of Noc, Inc., under the direction of Peter Adamini and Mrs. Marie K. Peterson, opened to a full house Monday night.

Cast members who were present at the luncheon along with Adamini and Mrs. Peterson were Mrs. Arlene Hendrickson (Mame), Coralie Puglisi (Vera Charles), Mary Lee DeGrand (Agnes Gooch), Bill Wertz (Young Patrick Dennis), Jim Bruce (the older Patrick Dennis), and Jim Moore (Ita).

The numbers which the cast performed were "St. Bridget," by Agnes and young Dennis, "We Need A Little Christmas" by Mame, Agnes, Pat and Ita, "Mame" Reprise, by the young and older Patrick, "My Best Girl" older Patrick, "How Young I Feel" by Mame, "Bosom Buddies" by Vera Mame.

Adamini and Mrs. Peterson said that although tickets were moving fast, there should still be tickets available at the door for the production on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

In other action at the meeting, president Arol Beck who finished his term of office with Monday's meeting, thanked all the officers, committee chairmen and Kiwanians for their support during his term.

Chairman Earl Delforge conducted the induction of new members Richard E. Olson, Richard Barron and John Winnerski.

Bilking Of Gls Being Probed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A retired Army general and some top-rated sergeants are expected to testify before a Senate subcommittee investigating charges that American servicemen were bilked of hundreds of thousands of dollars through operations of base recreation clubs.

A spokesman for the Senate permanent investigations subcommittee said leadoff witnesses at the hearings, which open today, would explain club operations in Germany and Vietnam with retired Maj. Gen. Carl C. Turner and the sergeants probably to be called next week.

The subcommittee has declined to give any specifics about the scope of the hearings and as far as is known no criminal charges have been filed against any one.

But there have been numerous published reports in recent weeks that subcommittee investigators have uncovered a network through which Army personnel and some civilians have reaped huge profits by selling supplies for enlisted men's clubs to the Army.

Powers-Spalding Religion Classes

Religion classes began last week at St. George Church with approximately 57 young people present for the high school classes on Monday evening and about 216 children at the classes on Monday and Wednesday afternoons.

Harvest Festival Plans are taking shape for the annual Harvest Festival which will be held in the parish hall of St. George Church on Sunday, Nov. 2. Mrs. Ray Teal will serve as general chairman. Other chairmen will be named at a later date.

Mrs. Ray Teal, Mrs. Wayne Teal and daughter, Bonnie Kay, went to Big Rapids last weekend where the latter enrolled for her sophomore year at Ferris State University.

Leo Gatien is chairman for St. George Parish for the second annual Upper Peninsula Catholic Services Appeal. Mrs. Ellsworth Nault is secretary.

TEN POUNDS OF COINS — pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters — produced a $31 deposit in the State Savings Bank of Manistique for Nancy Spaulding, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Spaulding of Garden. Nancy has been saving coins in the jar for the past four years. Accepting the deposit for counting is Mrs. Paul Sablack of the bank staff. (Mincoff Studio.)

Bethel 69 Host To State Confab

All Grand Officers of Michigan were together for the first time in Manistique over the weekend when the local Bethel 69, International Order of Job's Daughters, hosted various activities on Saturday.

A round table discussion on improving the Bethel, duties of council members and Job's, and better understanding of the by-laws was led by Mrs. Norma Parker, Grand Guardian of Michigan. Grand Bethel Honor Queen Lianne Smith presided at the girls' session which discussed purposes, aims and ideas for future activities.

Mrs. Helen McGlothlin, Grand First Messenger of the Guardian Council of Michigan and Diane Reid, Grand Representative to Kansas, plus Grand Bethel officers were honored at an afternoon reception.

About 170 persons attended a dinner Saturday night in the Eat Shop banquet hall to hear Sheila Lamirand, Bethel 69 Honored Queen, make the presentations. Mrs. Parker and Howard Legg, State Vice-Associate Grand Guardian spoke. Legg pointed out that, in keeping with the dinner's theme of "Man on the Moon," Neil Armstrong, the first man on the moon was a Mason in good standing. Maureen Fagan offered the invocation and, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Maurice Fagan, entertained with a solo. Mrs. Sherwood Lamirand extended the welcome.

The speaker's table was centered with a made-to-scale space rocket and limb designed by Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson. The "First Man on the Moon" theme was carried out in table decorations featuring moon rocks and astronauts in honor of Mrs. McGlothlin. Miss Reid was honored for her affiliation with Kansas.

Four local girls were initiated in ceremonies conducted by Queen Dianne Smith and her

PSC Approves Gas Price Hike Of $38 Million

LANSING (AP) — Higher fuel bills are looming with the winds of winter today for more than a million Michiganders, as legal maneuvering continues over a controversial $38 million revenue increase awarded to Consumers Power Co.

The Michigan Public Service Commission has announced that the huge utility, with some 1.8 million subscribers, may propose rate increases sufficient to boost natural gas revenues by $21.3 million and electricity receipts by $16.5 million.

Specific customer utility rate changes may be approved and announced sometime next week, the commission's office said.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley, who opposed granting an application, called the award "excessive" and indicated he was "studying the matter with a view to an immediate appeal."

In Jackson, A.H. Aymond, Consumers board chairman, called the increase disappointingly small.

"We believe that the company should have been allowed the full amount of the requested increases," Aymond said. The company sought increases of more than $57.7 million — $28.4 million for natural gas, $29.4 million for electricity.

"We are disappointed," Aymond said, but added "the increases authorized will be helpful in offsetting, in part, our increased costs."

The commission's decision, contained in a 56-page report signed by Willis F. Ward, chairman, together with commissioners William A. Boos Jr. and Lenton G. Seuthorp, rejected Kelley's arguments and accountability proposals.

Worship Of Youth Carried Too Far

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Who's afraid of losing youth?

Practically every woman over 24 in America, every man who has reached 29—and many in both sexes who are even younger.

So intense is the worship of youth that they fear their developing maturity as if it were a curse, a plague of years. Reaching 30 today is as big a mental hurdle to them as reaching 40 was a generation ago, or becoming 50 was in the early part of this century.

The trouble with this cult of youth is that it is too narrow. It places too much value on being young merely in terms of calendar years. Of much more importance is the calendar of the spirit, and how young it remains.

Surely a wrinkled heart or mind makes you older than a wrinkled face. Certainly a fellow who has become a stuffed shirt at 20 is more of an old fog than one of 55 who is still fresh and unsoft in his ways.

Your true age is told more by your attitude than by your birth date. You're probably still among the youthful ones of mankind if—

You can sing, or even hum a song that became popular in the last five years.

It is possible for you to listen to an idea advanced during a business conference by a younger man without automatically dismissing the idea as immature and its advocate as a whippersnapper.

On the days when you can't find a pair of garters to hold up your socks, you can go to work without losing your self-confidence.

You retain at least one leftover bad habit that makes you worry about whether you're ruining your health.

Perhaps you've become noticeably thicker through the mid-region, but when you take a deep breath you measure more around the chest than the waist.

Mortgage Loan Scheme Gets 2 Men In Trouble

NEW YORK (AP) — Two Michigan men declined to enter pleas in federal court Monday to charges of conspiring to pay kickbacks on a $1,067,000 mortgage loan from a union pension fund.

The alleged scheme involves several defendants described by federal authorities as reputed Mafia members.

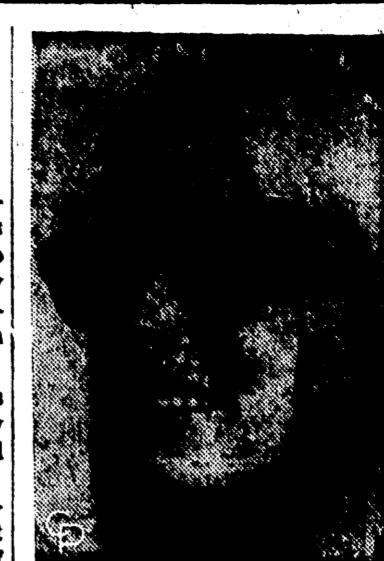

Judge Thomas F. Murphy ordered the clerk to enter innocent pleas for Samuel Morroso, 55, of Warren, Mich., described as a public relations man; and Dominic "Fats" Corrado, 39, of Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., a owner and former racetrack official.

Legal motions were scheduled for Oct. 21.

Corrado was director of the Hazel Park Racing Association in suburban Detroit, but resigned when he was indicted.

It was reported Monday that a missing defendant, Salvatore Granello, 46, of New York, surrendered in Florida last Thursday.

Beer Legalized

GUN BARREL CITY, Tex. (AP) — This east Texas town voted 29-11 Monday to legalize the sale of beer for off-premises consumption.

The recently incorporated township near Cedar Creek Lake is named for Gun Barrel Lane, a long, straight road that serves as the town's main street.

Train Wrecked

SHIZUOKA, Japan (AP) — A three-car commuter train slammed head-on into a 35-car freight train parked in a yard 70 miles southwest of Tokyo early today, injuring 125 persons, police said. All of the injured were aboard the passenger train.

Fifteen of the victims, including the engineer, were reported seriously injured. About 400 passengers were aboard the commuter train.

NOTICE HARRIS TOWNSHIP

Notice is hereby given that the last day to register for the November 4, 1969 Special Election to be held in Menominee County, Harris Township is 5 P. M. Friday, October 3, 1969.

1968-1969 ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT OF THE BARK RIVER-HARRIS SCHOOL DISTRICT

The Bark River-Harris Elementary School is located on 40 acres of land valued at approximately $12,000. The value of the building is $400,000 and the contents of the building are valued at $30,000. The bus garage and contents are valued at $12,000 with an additional $5,000 for supplies in the garage.

The Bark River-Harris High School is valued at $40,000. The high school equipment is valued at $10,000 and the site at approximately $3,000.

There are 18 classrooms in the elementary building and 8 in the high school.

Eighteen fulltime teachers are employed on the elementary faculty and 10 are on the high school faculty.

The principals are part-time teachers.

Teacher salaries range from $6,000 to $9,480 for the B. S. degree, and from $6,500 to $10,270 for the M. A. degree.

Five hundred nineteen students were enrolled at the elementary building and 164 at the high school. Four elementary and one high school student were non-residents.

The ratio of fulltime classroom teachers to students is 1:24. The district has 9 school buses, all in excellent condition; 5 school coaches, 2 custodians; 2 secretaries; 1 bus mechanic and 1 maintenance man.

We have improved our curriculum considerably and increased our course offerings at the high school. The district is sponsoring an adult education program. The elementary school has started some non-grading of classes. Our big need is a new high school building.

Respectfully,
Gerald Rittenburgh
Superintendent

MANISTIQUE

TEN POUNDS OF COINS — pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters — produced a $31 deposit in the State Savings Bank of Manistique for Nancy Spaulding, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Spaulding of Garden. Nancy has been saving coins in the jar for the past four years. Accepting the deposit for counting is Mrs. Paul Sablack of the bank staff. (Mincoff Studio.)

Bethel 69 Host To State Confab

All Grand Officers of Michigan were together for the first time in Manistique over the weekend when the local Bethel 69, International Order of Job's Daughters, hosted various activities on Saturday.

A round table discussion on improving the Bethel, duties of council members and Job's, and better understanding of the by-laws was led by Mrs. Norma Parker, Grand Guardian of Michigan. Grand Bethel Honor Queen Lianne Smith presided at the girls' session which discussed purposes, aims and ideas for future activities.

Mrs. Helen McGlothlin, Grand First Messenger of the Guardian Council of Michigan and Diane Reid, Grand Representative to Kansas, plus Grand Bethel officers were honored at an afternoon reception.

About 170 persons attended a dinner Saturday night in the East Shop banquet hall to hear Sheila Lamirand, Bethel 69 Honored Queen, make the presentations. Mrs. Parker and Howard Legg, State Vice-Associate Grand Guardian spoke.

Legg pointed out that, in keeping with the dinner's theme of "Man on the Moon," Neil Armstrong, the first man on the moon was a Mason in good standing. Maureen Fagan offered the invocation and, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Maurice Fagan, entertained with a solo. Mrs. Sherwood Lamirand extended the welcome.

The speaker's table was centered with a made-to-scale space rocket and limb designed by Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson. The "First Man on the Moon" theme was carried out in table decorations featuring moon rocks and astronauts in honor of Mrs. McGlothlin. Miss Reid was honored for her affiliation with Kansas.

Four local girls were initiated in ceremonies conducted by Queen Dianne Smith and her

PSC Approves Gas Price Hike Of $38 Million

LANSING (AP) — Higher fuel bills are looming with the winds of winter today for more than a million Michiganders, as legal maneuvering continues over a controversial, $38 million revenue increase awarded to Consumers Power Co.

The Michigan Public Service Commission has announced that the huge utility, with some 1.8 million subscribers, may propose rate increases sufficient to boost natural gas revenues by $21.3 million and electricity receipts by $16.5 million.

Specific customer utility rate changes may be approved and announced sometime next week, the commission's office said.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley, who opposed granting an application, called the award "excessive" and indicated he was "studying the matter with a view to an immediate appeal."

In Jackson, A.H. Aymond, Consumers board chairman, called the increase disappointingly small.

"We believe that the company should have been allowed the full amount of the requested increases," Aymond said. The company sought increases of more than $57.7 million — $28.4 million for natural gas, $29.4 million for electricity.

"We are disappointed," Aymond said, but added "the increases authorized will be helpful in offsetting, in part, our increased costs."

The commission's decision, contained in a 56-page report signed by Willis P. Ward, chairman, together with commissioners William A. Boos Jr. and Lenton G. Skulthorp, rejected Kelley's arguments and accountability proposals.

Solon Suggests Licensing Of Auto Mechanics

WASHINGTON (AP) — A system of licensing for auto mechanics was proposed Monday by Rep. Spark M. Matsunaga, D-Hawaii.

"The consumer needs a guide for distinguishing the skilled mechanic from the incompetent, and the honest mechanic from the unscrupulous chiseler," Matsunaga said in introducing a measure in the House to set up the license system.

A minimum of two years training would be required and passage of an examination to assure minimum standards of competence.

Junior High BYF will meet twice a month at the church. Officers for 1969 and 1970 are president, Danny Smith; vice president, Peter Ostland; secretary, Debbie Atkins; treasurer, Leah Blowers; program chairman, Mrs. Robert Schurbring; games, Julie Thorell and Ken Atkins.

Worship Of Youth Carried Too Far

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Who's afraid of losing youth? Practically every woman over 24 in America, every man who has reached 29—and many in both sexes who are even younger.

So intense is the worship of youth that they fear their developing maturity as if it were a curse, a plague of years. Reaching 30 today is as big a mental hurdle to them as reaching 40 was a generation ago, or becoming 50 was in the early part of this century.

The trouble with this cult of youth is that it is too narrow. It places too much value on being young merely in terms of calendar years. Of much more importance is the calendar of the spirit, and how young it remains.

Surely a wrinkled heart or mind makes you older than a wrinkled face. Certainly a fellow who has become a stuffed shirt at 20 is more of an old fog than one of 55 who is still fresh and unsoft in his ways.

Your true age is told more by your attitude than by your birth date. You're probably still among the youthful ones of mankind if—

You can sing, or even hum a song that became popular in the last five years.

It is possible for you to listen to an idea advanced during a business conference by a younger man without automatically dismissing the idea as immature and its advocate as a whippersnapper.

On the days when you can't find a pair of garters to hold up your socks, you can go to work without losing your self-confidence.

You retain at least one leftover bad habit that makes you worry about whether you're ruining your health.

Perhaps you've become noticeably thicker through the mid-region, but when you take a deep breath you measure more around the chest than the waist. At a cocktail party you don't cluster in a corner with all the other old-timers and mutter about bygone days.

You'd rather share the troubles of younger people than drive them away by giving them pontifical advice.

Even if you think the world is hellbent on the path to perdition, you believe something can be done to save it before it gets there.

Although anything that happens may remind you of something that happened before, it is possible for you now and then to refrain from pointing out the resemblance.

You've succeeded in making at least one new friend for every two you've lost through the erosion of time and circumstance.

Life hasn't made you cynical; you're still having a love affair with it, and on most days you find more things to be glad about than mad about.

If these things are true of you, forget the rising number of candles on your birthday cake. You're still young enough to stay in the game—and maybe outscore the inexperienced player.

Church Cites Mrs. Kinnie

Mrs. Herman Kinnie, who has retired as superintendent of the Sunday School of First Lutheran Church, was honored at the church on Sunday evening. Mrs. Kinnie has served as superintendent for 11 years.

A program presented in the Church sanctuary included a vocal solo by Mrs. Reuben Carlson, selections by the Junior and Trinity Choirs, and an original poem by Mrs. Melvin Carlson. A skit, depicting highlights of the school under the supervision of Mrs. Kinnie, written by Miss Lois Borna, was narrated by Mrs. Norman Nelsen. Also participating in the skit were: Roxanne Treichel, Jane Ebbesen, Mark Carlson, Janet Labre, Bill Sjoquist, Kris Evans, Dianne D'Arcy, and Julie Nivison.

A certificate of appreciation from the church was presented to Mrs. Kinnie by Pastor Reuben Carlson, a gift from the Church Council presented by Norman Nelsen, and gifts from the Church School by Mrs. Albert Ellison. Numerous cards and letters expressing appreciation from members and friends were also given to Mrs. Kinnie.

Refreshments were served in the fellowship room. The tables were attractively decorated with fall flowers. The serving table was centered with a decorated cake in the form of an open Bible.

Attends Meeting

Mrs. H. J. Skogquist attended the annual convention of the Episcopal Women of the Northern Michigan Diocese which was held on Friday and Saturday at the Church of Transfiguration at Ironwood. Mrs. Skogquist was the delegate of the Guild of Trinity Episcopal Church. The Rev. Philip Nancarrow, Pastor of Trinity and also Zion Episcopal at Wilson also attended the convention.

Top Grid Powers Retain Positions

By The Associated Press

The top seven teams, led by mighty and near-perfect Ohio State, retained their positions this week in The Associated Press college football poll.

The Buckeyes of Woody Hayes, defending national champions, opened their season Saturday with a 62-0 massacre of Texas Christian and earned 35 of the 40 first-place votes cast by a nationwide committee of sports writers and broadcasters.

They wound up with a total of 784 points, only 16 short of a perfect score and 165 in front of runner-up Penn State, with two first-place votes and 619 points.

Arkansas, Texas, Southern California, Oklahoma and Georgia remained third through seventh, respectively, with Texas getting the other three first-place ballots.

In weekend action, Penn State triumphed Colorado 27-3. Arkansas clobbered Tulsa 55-0, Texas trounced Texas Tech 49-7. Southern Cal walloped Northwestern 49-6. Oklahoma whipped Pitt 37-3 and Georgia blanked Clemson 30-0.

The rest of the Top Ten consisted of Purdue, up from 16th to eighth on the strength of a 28-14 defeat of Notre Dame; Missouri, which rose from 11th to ninth after crushing Illinois 37-6, and Tennessee, which drubbed Auburn 45-19 and climbed from 19th to 10th.

Notre Dame, which had been ninth, fell out of the Top Twenty.

The Second Ten included UCLA, up from 14th; Florida, no change; Michigan, up from 20th; Michigan State, down one to 14th; Alabama, no change; newcomers Louisiana State, Stanford, West Virginia and Wyoming in the 16-17-18-19 positions and Mississippi, down from eighth to 20th.

Besides Notre Dame, Indiana, Auburn and Arizona State dropped from the Top Twenty. They were 10th, 17th and 18th a week ago.

"We're aware we have some good players," Hayes said Monday at his weekly luncheon in Columbus, Ohio. "We have to continue to get better every time we play."

The Top Twenty, with first-place votes in parentheses. Points awarded for first 15 picks on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1:

1. Ohio State (35) 784
2. Penn State (2) 619

Young Pacing Area Scorers

Dan Young of the Holy Name Crusaders holds down the number one spot among scorers from the seven schools in the Escanaba area that are covered by the Daily Press.

Young, a senior fullback for the Crusaders, has scored 10 touchdowns for 60 points to hold a big edge over Len Olson and Russ Pirioli of the Bark River-Harris Broncos and Dick Smith of the Powers-Spalding Tigers, all of whom have scored 36 points in four games this season.

The bruising Holy Name runner has scored two touchdowns in three of the Crusader games and against Stephenson, he racked up four. The only team to shut out Young was the Menominee Maroons, when Holy Name was beaten 6-0.

Teams included in this scoring derby are the Escanaba Eskymos, Holy Name Crusaders, Gladstone Braves, Manistique Emeralds, Bark River-Harris Broncos, Powers-Spalding Tigers and Rock Little Giants.

Other players leading their teams in the scoring department are Cliff Young of Gladstone with 30 points, Brian Larson, Steve Rosemurgy, Rick Brookes, Mike Dupont and Gene Timmer of Escanaba with 12 points and Keith Aldrich of Manistique, also with 12 points.

Ed Wadeen has scored Rock's only touchdown of the year for six points.

Bengals Clinch Tie For Second

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Detroit Tigers can take some small consolation from the 1969 baseball season.

Their 4-1 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Monday guaranteed Detroit at least a tie for second place in the American League East.

And while the defending World Champion Tigers couldn't stop the Orioles from running away with the pennant—the Birds lead the division by 19 games—this latest victory killed Baltimore's hopes of smashing a record for most wins by an American League team in a season.

Going into Monday's game, the Orioles had 106 victories and needed to win all their remaining games to break the record of 111 set by Cleveland in 1954.

The teams meet again tonight, with Earl Wilson, 12-10, scheduled to take the mound against Dave McNally, 29-6.

Perhaps McNally will be able to break away from the jinx that seems to be afflicting the Orioles pitching staff.

Baltimore pitchers have fired three straight four-hitters, and lost them all.

Mike Cuellar is the latest victim, losing the decision Monday night to the Tigers as Bill Freehan drove in three runs.

Freehan tripled in Norm Cash, who had been hit on the elbow by a Cuellar pitch in the second, then singled in two ninth-inning runs to chase the

WELCOMING HANDS — Rico Carty of the Atlanta Braves is welcomed to the dugout by many hands and manager Luman Harris after he drove in three runs, two in the first inning on a home run and one in the eighth with a double, to help beat the San Diego Padres 4-2 Sunday. The victory clinched at least a tie for the Western Division title of the National League. (AP Wirephoto)

Pitchers Do Well In Hitters' Year

By The Associated Press

This was supposed to be baseball's Year of the Hitter but the pitchers, lowered mound, smaller strike zone and all, haven't done badly for themselves.

There are a dozen 20-game winners sprinkled around the major leagues—the highest total in 13 pitchers reached the 20-victory plateau back in 1951.

And four other hurlers with 19 victories each could reach 20 as the season swings into its final week.

Phil Niekro, one of the 20-game winners, goes for Atlanta tonight against Cincinnati as the Braves try to clinch the National League West pennant. One Atlanta victory or San Francisco's loss, ends the race.

Mike Cuellar, another member of the 20-victory club, was beaten 4-1 by Detroit Monday night—only the second loss in 15 decisions since the All-Star Game for the Baltimore left-hander.

In the only other game played in the majors Monday night, Boston whipped Washington 8-5 as Rico Petrocelli set a record by hitting his 40th homer of the year, most ever by an American League shortstop. Petrocelli broke the mark of 39 set by Vern Stephens, who also played for the Red Sox.

Frank Howard ripped his 48th of the year for the Senators, tying Harmon Killebrew for the major league home run lead.

Besides Cuellar, 23-11, and Niekro, 22-13, the 20-game winners this season are Minnesota's Jim Perry, 20-6, Tom Seaver of the New York Mets, 25-7, Detroit's Denny McLain, 24-9, Dave McNally of Baltimore, 20-6, Dave Boswell of Minnesota, 20-11, Mel Stottlemyre of the New York Yankees, 20-14, San Francisco's Juan Marichal, 21-11, Houston's Larry Dierker, 20-12 and Ferguson Jenkins, 21-15, and Bill Madsen, 20-14, both of the Chicago Cubs.

McNally and Perry both get a chance to add to their totals today. The Baltimore left-hander faces Detroit while the Twins' righty takes on Chicago.

Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals, Mickey Lolich of Detroit, and Claude Osteen and Bill Singer, both of the Los Angeles Dodgers, are all on the verge of the 20-victory club with 19 triumphs each.

Singer, Gibson and Lolich all pitched Sunday and Osteen worked Saturday. All could get one more shot at 20 in the final days of the season.

Flores, Huarte Offered Tryouts By Kansas City

By The Associated Press

The Kansas City Chiefs, suddenly the American Football League's hard-luck team, are looking for at least one quarterback.

Starter Len Dawson injured his knee at Boston two weeks ago and is out at least another month. Backup man Jack Lee broke an ankle bone during Sunday's 24-19 loss at Cincinnati and will be sidelined two to three weeks.

Suddenly, No. 3 quarterback Mike Livingston, a second-year player from Southern Methodist, is No. 1 and the Chiefs need someone at No. 2. They could even use a No. 3.

Coach Hank Stram discounted rumors of an impending trade and said Tom Flores and John Huarte, free agents with impressive credentials, were to try out with the Chiefs today. Stram also will look at rookie Ed Podolak, a former Iowa quarterback who has been used by Kansas City at running back.

Livingston played in two games last year and came in during the second half in the stunner at Cincinnati. He completed nine of 17 passes for 99 yards—not enough to stop the amazing Bengals, who won their third straight and snapped Kansas City's regular season game winning streak at seven dating from last season. The Chiefs also won all six exhibition games.

Flores, a nine-year veteran, spent seven years at Oakland, then went to Buffalo in the 1967 Daryl Lamonica trade. His best season was 1966 when he was the Raiders' starter and completed 151 of 306 passes for 2,638 yards and 24 touchdowns.

Huarte, 1964 Heisman Trophy winner for Notre Dame, spent 1965 on the New York Jets' taxi squad, was traded to Boston in 1966, released by the Patriots after four games of the 1967 season and spent 1968 with Philadelphia. He tried out with Minnesota this year before being released.

The Bengals, who did fine without starting quarterback Greg Cook after he was injured in the second half Sunday, said they'll know by midweek if their sensational rookie will be able to play against San Diego next Saturday. Cook pulled a muscle in his right arm and was replaced by Sam Wyche.

Minnesota, which handed Baltimore its second straight loss, expressed confidence that quarterback Joe Kapp will be able to play in next Sunday's game with Green Bay. Kapp fractured his non-passing wrist in the third quarter but Coach Bud Grant said the break is high enough that it doesn't affect the use of his hand.

The slumping Jets compounded their problems with the loss of Jim Hudson, hard-tackling strongside safety, who tore ligaments in his gimpy left knee during the world champions'

34-27 drubbing at San Diego.

Unless the knee shows dramatic improvement, Hudson could be lost for at least six weeks. If surgery is eventually required, he'd be through for the year. Hudson has had major surgery on the knee twice before and the Jets are hesitant to operate again.

Junior Varsities Blank Opponents

All three junior varsity teams from the area high schools posted shutouts victories in conference games played Saturday.

The Escanaba JV's blanked West Iron County 37-0 while the Holy Name squad blanked Kingsford 61-0 in Great Northern Conference tilts.

The other game found the Gladstone Braves handing the Manistique Emeralds a 33-0 setback in a Great Lakes Conference contest.

Top Grid Powers Retain Positions

By The Associated Press

The top seven teams, led by the mighty and near-perfect Ohio State, retained their positions this week in The Associated Press college football poll.

The Buckeyes of Woody Hayes, defending national champions, opened their season Saturday with a 62-0 massacre of Texas Christian and earned 35 of the 40 first-place votes cast by a nationwide committee of sports writers and broadcasters.

They wound up with a total of 784 points, only 16 short of a perfect score and 165 in front of runner-up Penn State, with two first-place votes and 619 points. Arkansas, Texas, Southern California, Oklahoma and Georgia remained third through seventh, respectively, with Texas getting the other three first-place ballots.

In weekend action, Penn State trounced Colorado 27-3, Arkansas clobbered Tulsa 55-0, Texas

Young Pacing Area Scorers

Dan Young of the Holy Name Crusaders holds down the number one spot among scorers from the seven schools in the Escanaba area that are covered by the Daily Press.

Young, a senior fullback for the Crusaders, has scored 10 touchdowns for 60 points to hold a big edge over Len Olson and Russ Piriol of the Bark River-Harris Broncos and Dick Smith of the Powers-Spalding Tigers, all of whom have scored 36 points in four games this season.

The bruising Holy Name runner has scored two touchdowns in three of the Crusader games and against Stephenson, he racked up four. The only team to shut out Young was the Menominee Maroons, when Holy Name was beaten 6-0.

Teams included in this scoring derby are the Escanaba Eskymos, Holy Name Crusaders, Gladstone Braves, Manistique Emeralds, Bark River-Harris Broncos, Powers-Spalding Tigers and Rock Little Giants.

Other players leading their teams in the scoring department are Cliff Young of Gladstone with 30 points, Brian Larson, Steve Rosemurgy, Rick Brookes, Mike Dupont and Gene Timmer of Escanaba with 12 points and Keith Aldrich of Manistique, also with 12 points.

Ed Wadeen has scored Rock's only touchdown of the year for six points.

Sports In Brief

Shortstop Luis Aparicio of the Chicago White Sox started with Waterloo, Iowa, in the Three I League in 1954.

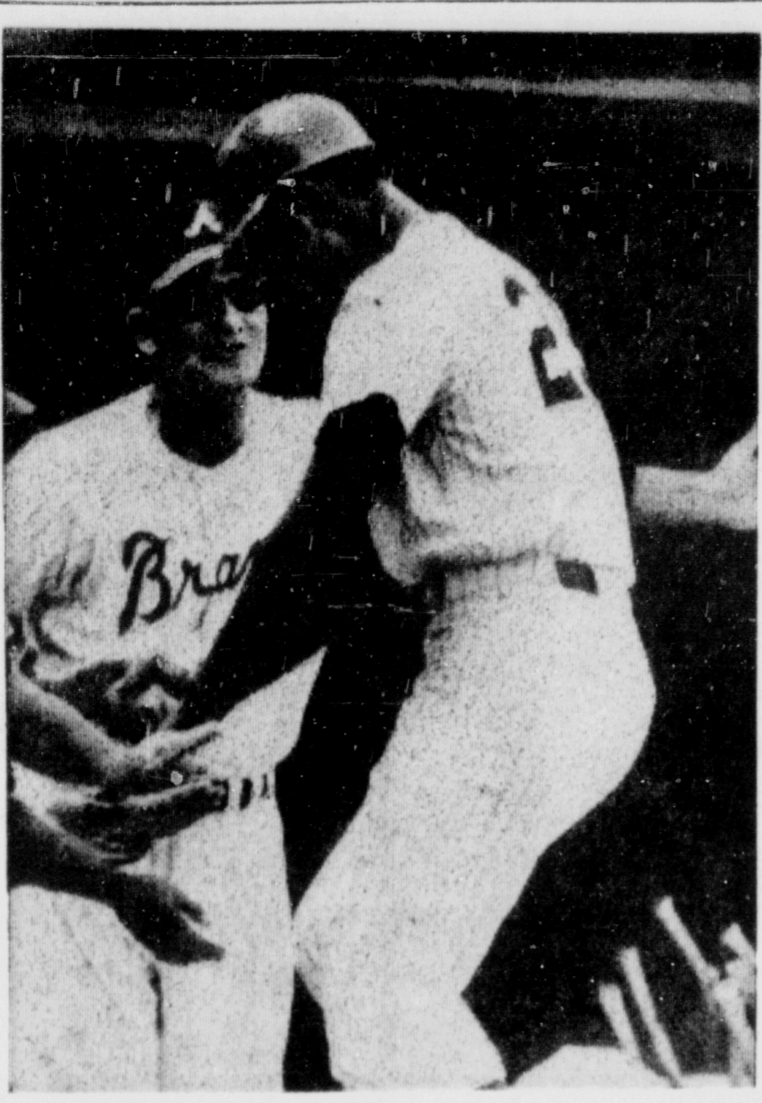

The annual Army-Navy football game will be played in Philadelphia on Saturday, Nov. 29.

Army's football team will resume its rivalry with Notre Dame with an Oct. 11 game in New York's Yankee Stadium.

The 1970 PGA championship will be played at the Southern Hills Country Club in Tulsa, Okla.

VINCE'S NEW ARM: Sonny Jurgenson, 35, fears back to throw a practice pass as Coach Vince Lombardi watches. Both hope to lead the Washington Redskins from the lower depths of the National Football League.

WELCOMING HANDS — Rico Carty of the Atlanta Braves is welcomed to the dugout by many hands and manager Luman Harris after he drove in three runs, two in the first inning on a home run and one in the eighth with a double, to help beat the San Diego Padres 4-2 Sunday. Pitchers Do Well In Hitters' Year

By The Associated Press

This was supposed to be baseball's Year of the Hitter but the pitchers, lowered mound, smaller strike zone and all, haven't done badly for themselves.

There are a dozen 20-game winners sprinkled around the major leagues—the highest total since 13 pitchers reached the 20-victory plateau back in 1951.

And four other hurlers with 19 victories each could reach 20 as the season swings into its final week.

Phil Niekro, one of the 20-game winners, goes for Atlanta tonight against Cincinnati as the Braves try to clinch the National League West pennant. One Atlanta victory or San Francisco loss, ends the race.

Mike Cuellar, another member of the 20-victory club, was beaten 4-1 by Detroit Monday

Bengals Clinch Tie For Second

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Detroit Tigers can take some small consolation from the 1969 baseball season.

Their 4-1 victory over the Baltimore Orioles Monday guaranteed Detroit at least a tie for second place in the American League East.

And while the defending World Champion Tigers couldn't stop the Orioles from running away with the pennant—the Birds lead the division by 19 games—this latest victory killed Baltimore's hopes of smashing a record for most wins by an American League team in a season.

Going into Monday's game, the Orioles had 108 victories and needed to win all their remaining games to break the record of 111 set by Cleveland in 1954.

The teams meet again tonight, with Earl Wilson, 12-10, scheduled to take the mound against Dave McNally, 29-6.

Perhaps McNally will be able to break away from the jinx that seems to be afflicting the Orioles pitching staff.

Baltimore pitchers have fired three straight four-hitters, and lost them all.

Mike Cuellar is the latest victim, losing the decision Monday night to the Tigers as Bill Freehan drove in three runs.

Freehan tripled in Norm Cash, who had been hit on the elbow by a Cuellar pitch in the second, then singled in two ninth-inning runs to chase the

ATHLETIC SOLONS

CHICAGO (AP)—Congressmen with sports backgrounds serving in the House of Representatives are among the individuals with unusual careers before they were elected legislators.

But a study of biographies gives no real clue as to what an ambitious young person needs as background for a career in Congress.

Commerce Clearing House said those with sports backgrounds are Roy Mathias (Calif.), twice Olympic Gold Medal winner in the Decathlon; Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell (N. C.), former National League All-Star baseball pitcher, and Morris K. Udall (Ariz.), who played professional basketball with the Denver Nuggets.

Spartans Hope To Pass Against Irish Saturday

EAST LANSING (AP)—Duffy Daugherty is trying to get a passing game going, hoping his Michigan State team will come up with an effective air offense against Notre Dame at South Bend Saturday.

So the Irish can expect a combination of the ground rush that proved so deadly against the first two Spartan opponents plus try again efforts by quarterback Bill Triplett to hit his receivers.

"We would have been a lot better off if we hadn't thrown the ball at all in our first two games," declared the MSU coach semi-seriously. "But, of course, you can't do that."

Ideally, Daugherty said, a team should average about 350 yards a game rushing and 150 passing. The Spartans have a solid 582 yards rushing in two games but only 88 yards passing.

Triplett, the junior signal-caller, has completed eight of 28 pass tries for 59 yards plus three interceptions.

The rushing attack saved State in both its wins — 27-11 over Washington and 23-15 against Southern Methodist last Saturday.

Triplett redeemed himself by performing as a halfback. He netted 122 yards rushing against SMU, mostly by keeping on the option.

Right half Ron Highsmith, a rugged 192-pound senior, who runs harder than his weight would indicate, has 217 yards rushing. Left half Eric Eilan, a slight, 168-pound sophomore, is the sprinter type and has escaped for 186 yards.

"We haven't come up with the blend of passing and running we need," Daugherty complained. "We hope one of these days to put everything all together—and we better."

Daugherty said he is still sticking with Triplett and has confidence in his quarterback. Triplett is able to make the completions in practice, if not under game conditions.

"All he needs is to hit a couple of long bombs or complete four or five in a row," Daugherty said. "then he will be over the hump."

Michigan State works out of a new triple option offense that makes any kind in the backfield a threat. Daugherty emphasized that he did not think the new style of play helped account for the many mistakes so far—in-

Missouri Attack Like Michigan's

ANN ARBOR (AP) — When Missouri meets Michigan in football Saturday they might each think they're looking in a mirror.

U-M coach Bo Schembechler said this week that "when you see their offense you'll think it's ours."

If such is the case, the encounter could be a high scoring one.

Michigan crushed Vanderbilt 42-14 in its opener, then rolled over a Washington team that was 40 pounds a man heavier in the line than Vandy with a 45-7 score.

"At the start of the season we hoped to squeeze by Vanderbilt and Washington," Schembechler said. "We've done more than that—now we have a 'chance' against Missouri."

"Things are going to be real snug now," he said convincingly. "There won't be any ripping through there at 15 yards a crack."

He referred to the running of quarterback Don Moorhead and tailback Glenn Doughty, who together have rolled up 530 yards rushing in two games.

Moorhead, a junior, has only been thrown for a loss once in 29 carries and has an 8.0 rushing average per try. He has also completed 18 of 28 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown.

His primary receivers have been Paul Staroba and Jim Mandich. Wing back Staroba has hauled in nine passes for 106 yards in two games while Mandich, the team captain and a prime All-American prospect at tight end, has caught seven passes for 87 yards and a TD.

Doughty, who ran for 191 yards against Washington, has a 329 total for a 7.5-yard per carry average. The sophomore tailback, who is a converted end, hasn't lost a yard in 44 tries.

Schembechler said Missouri is liable to pass or run against Michigan, whatever seems necessary.

But Michigan's defensive secondary has been excellent this year, as it was last. Senior Tom Curtis has already picked off three errant enemy passes to give him 20 for his career.

"He's like a centerfielder, he's off at the crack of the bat when a quarterback lets go of that pass," Schembechler said.

Teamed with Curtis in the deep secondary is Barry Pierson, who intercepted two passes Saturday against the Huskies. Pierson was also in on several key plays and under Schembechler's incentive plan picked up six gold football decals to put on his helmet.

Pierson was named the week's "Champion" on defense by Schembechler and his staff, while Doughty was the offensive "champion."

Pistons Record Narrow Victory

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP) — McCoy McLemore's 50-foot jump-shot at the buzzer Monday night gave the Detroit Pistons a come-from-behind 124 - 122 National Basketball Association exhibition victory over the New York Knicks.

McLemore's game winning effort capped a Pistons comeback late in the fourth quarter as the Detroiters shot 66 per cent for the contest. The Pistons' record is now 2-1 on the season, while the Knicks suffered their first loss in three starts.

Detroit guard Jimmy Walker and forward Terry Dischinger sparked a Pistons surge late in the contest. Trailing 113-104, with four minutes to play, Detroit outscored New York in the next two minutes, 32 seconds to pull ahead 118-115.

New York tied the score at 118 apiece on Dave Stallworth's three-point play and then both teams traded two baskets. With 10 seconds to play and the score tied 122-122, McLemore took the ball and pushed a shot through the net from the free throw line. It was only his second basket of the game.

Detroit shot 46 of 70 from the floor in the contest and made all 13 crucial free throws in the final quarter.

The score was tied six times in the first half, and changed hands on eight different occasions. The Pistons shot a sizzling 74 per cent over the first two periods.

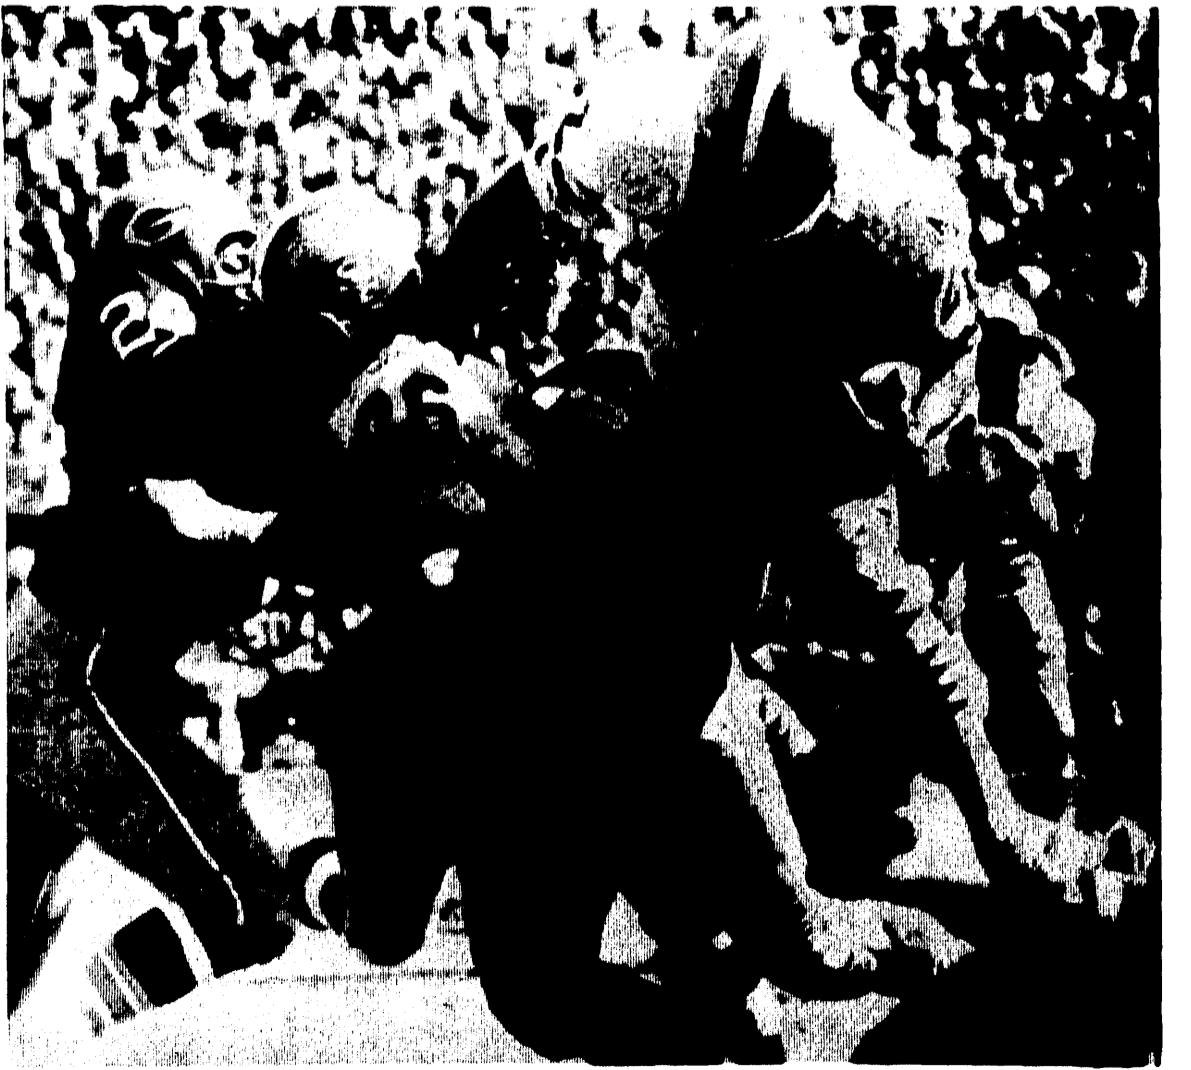

Walker finished with 33 points, his best scoring effort as a Pistons. Dischinger added 23 for the winners while center Willis Reed led New York with 29 points and Walt Frazier got 20.

CLIMBING OUT — Doug Cunningham (42) of the San Francisco 49ers leaps over his own men as he attempts to gain yardage on the Green Bay Packers Sunday at Milwaukee. Throwing an important block on the Packers' Willie Wood (24) is the 49ers' Len Rhode (76). Cunningham made about three yards, but not enough for a first down. (AP Wirephoto)

NO GAIN — Tommy Crutcher (56), right linebacker for the New York Giants, brings down Lion running back Tommy Watkins (30) for a two-yard loss in Sunday's second quarter of an NFL game in Detroit. The loss meant nothing to the Lions, however, as they went on to blank the Giants 24-0 for their first victory of the season. (AP Wirephoto)

Spartans Hope To Pass Against Irish Saturday

EAST LANSING (AP)—Duffy Daugherty is trying to get a passing game going, hoping his Michigan State team will come up with an effective air offense against Notre Dame at South Bend Saturday.

So the Irish can expect a combination of the ground rush that proved so deadly against the first two Spartan opponents plus try again efforts by quarterback Bill Triplett to hit his receivers.

"We would have been a lot better off if we hadn't thrown the ball at all in our first two games," declared the MSU coach semi-seriously. "But, of course, you can't do that."

Ideally, Daugherty said, a team should average about 350 yards a game rushing and 150 passing. The Spartans have a solid 582 yards rushing in two games but only 88 yards passing.

Triplett, the junior signal-caller, has completed eight of 28 pass tries for 59 yards plus three interceptions.

The rushing attack saved State in both its wins — 27-11 over Washington and 23-15 against Southern Methodist last Saturday.

Triplett redeemed himself by performing as a halfback. He netted 122 yards rushing against SMU, mostly by keeping on the option.

Right half Ron Highsmith, a rugged 192-pound senior, who runs harder than his weight would indicate, has 217 yards rushing. Left half Eric Eilan, a slight, 168-pound sophomore, is the sprinter type and has escaped for 186 yards.

"We haven't come up with the blend of passing and running we need," Daugherty complained. "We hope one of these days to put everything all together—and we better."

Daugherty said he is still sticking with Triplett and has confidence in his quarterback. Triplett is able to make the completions in practice, if not under game conditions.

"All he needs is to hit a couple of long bombs or complete four or five in a row," Daugherty said. "then he will be over the hump."

Michigan State works out of a new triple option offense that makes any kind in the backfield a threat. Daugherty emphasized that he did not think the new style of play helped account for the many mistakes so far—in-

Missouri Attack Like Michigan's

ANN ARBOR (AP) — When Missouri meets Michigan in football Saturday they might each think they're looking in a mirror.

U-M coach Bo Schembechler said this week that "when you see their offense you'll think it's ours."

If such is the case, the encounter could be a high scoring one.

Michigan crushed Vanderbilt 42-14 in its opener, then rolled over a Washington team that was 40 pounds a man heavier in the line than Vandy with a 45-7 score.

"At the start of the season we hoped to squeeze by Vanderbilt and Washington," Schembechler said. "We've done more than that—now we have a 'chance' against Missouri."

"Things are going to be real snug now," he said convincingly. "There won't be any ripping through there at 15 yards a crack."

He referred to the running of quarterback Don Moorhead and tailback Glenn Doughty, who together have rolled up 530 yards rushing in two games.

Moorhead, a junior, has only been thrown for a loss once in 29 carries and has an 8.0 rushing average per try. He has also completed 18 of 28 passes for 202 yards and one touchdown.

His primary receivers have been Paul Staroba and Jim Mandich. Wing back Staroba has hauled in nine passes for 106 yards in two games while Mandich, the team captain and a prime All-American prospect at tight end, has caught seven passes for 87 yards and a TD.

Doughty, who ran for 191 yards against Washington, has a 329 total for a 7.5-yard per carry average. The sophomore tailback, who is a converted end, hasn't lost a yard in 44 tries.

Schembechler said Missouri is liable to pass or run against Michigan, whatever seems necessary.

But Michigan's defensive secondary has been excellent this year, as it was last. Senior Tom Curtis has already picked off three errant enemy passes to give him 20 for his career.

TOWNSHIP OF BALDWIN DELTA COUNTY, MICHIGAN

Granted to ALGER-DELTA COOPERATIVE ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION SEPTEMBER 24, 1969.

The Township of Baldwin Ordains:

AN ORDINANCE, granting to Alger - Delta Cooperative Electric Association, its successors and assigns, the right, power, and authority to construct, maintain, and operate in the public streets, highways, alleys, and other public places in the Township of Baldwin, Delta County, Michigan, all necessary and proper poles, towers, mains, wires, pipes, conduits, and other apparatus requisite to the transmission and distribution of electricity.

SECTION 2. A franchise is hereby granted to Alger-Delta Cooperative Electric Association, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain, and operate in the public streets, highways, alleys, and other public places in the Township of Baldwin, Delta County, Michigan, all necessary and proper poles, towers, mains, wires, pipes, conduits, and other electrical appliances on, along, and across the public highways, streets, alleys, bridges, and other public places, and to do a local electric business in the Township of Baldwin, Delta County, Michigan, for a thirty (30)-year term.

WHEREAS, the Alger-Delta Cooperative Electric Association of Gladstone, Delta County, has made an application to this township board for an irrevocable 30-year franchise to set poles, string wires, and do whatever else is necessary to provide electricity for the residents of this township; and

WHEREAS, the granting of said franchise would enable the Alger-Delta Cooperative Electric Association of Gladstone to provide electricity to the residents of this township and would be in the best interests of the residents of the township; and

Mitchell Asks Big Antitrust Penalty Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department asked Congress Monday to increase the maximum fine for criminal antitrust violations tenfold—from $50,000 to $500,000.

In messages to both the House and the Senate, Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell described the present maximum as trivial and ineffective as a deterrent against market place corruption.

Criminal fines may be imposed under the 1890 Sherman Act for agreements in restraint of trade such as price fixing, or for monopolizing trade or commerce, or boycotting.

The original act provided a maximum $5,000 fine. The amount was increased to the present $50,000 level in 1955. In the 14 years since then, Mitchell said, "the assets and profits of corporations have increased dramatically, while the purchasing power of the dollar has decreased greatly."

He declared "the increase is obviously needed."

Some Whites Resent Gains Of Colored

NEW YORK (AP) — White, middle-income Americans are resentful of gains they think blacks have made, Newsweek magazine says.

The magazine, in its Oct. 6 edition, says a poll of white, middle-income Americans shows that 85 per cent believe that black militants have been treated too leniently.

The survey showed that 44 per cent of this group—which President Nixon called the "forgotten man"—believe Negroes have a better chance to get good-paying jobs; 41 per cent believe that Negroes have a better opportunity to get a good education for their children; and 63 per cent believe that unemployed Negroes have a better chance to get financial help from the government.

The survey was prepared by the Gallup organization for a magazine article entitled "The Troubled American, A Special Report on the White Majority." It surveyed 2,165 households, 1,321 of them with an income between $5,000 and $15,000.

The article said these Americans were pessimistic about the direction of the country. Forty-six per cent believe the United States has changed for the worse over the past decade, and 58 per cent believe the nation is likely to change for the worse during the next decade, it said. Asked about the top problems facing the country, nearly 2 out of 3 cited the Vietnam war, 41 per cent the racial crisis, 10 per cent crime and only 2 per cent nuclear war, the magazine said. Newsweek said nearly 7 out of 10 persons conceded that some demands of Negro leaders are justified.

Although 78 per cent said that federal taxes are too high, Newsweek said many cited areas where federal spending should be increased.

It said 56 per cent want more spent on job training and air and water pollution, 55 per cent want more spent on fighting organized crime and 47 per cent favor more money for medical care for the old and needy.

DETECTIVE TOM COLLINS of the Wyandotte Police Department inspects a psychedelic van impounded in Wyandotte after a marijuana raid which netted $40,000 worth of dope. Mackinac Island College For Sale For $7,500,000

Mackinac College, which opened in 1966 on Mackinac Island, famous resort island at the head of Lake Michigan and Lake Huron, has taken its last class of students and has been placed on sale.

The Board of Trustees has retained Previews Inc., international real estate marketing service, to sell the college with an offering price of $7,500,000. The campus is now valued at approximately $13,000,000.

The college is on 32 acres on the shore of Lake Huron, almost adjoining historic Fort Mackinac and the famed old Grand Hotel, which are visited by thousands of tourists each summer. The island is noted for its quaint horse-drawn carriages, replacing automobiles which are forbidden on the island as they are in Bermuda.

Classes opened in early September for the Charter class of seniors who will graduate next June. Other students were not accepted.

Opened in 1966 Mackinac College opened Oct. 1, 1966, when Dr. S. Douglas Cornell was formally installed as president in ceremonies attended by representatives of most of America's universities and learned societies.

"This splendid facility, with some of the finest educational buildings in the country, will be closed down next spring," reported Robert E. Reilly, vice president in charge of Previews' Chicago office.

Financial problems which often beset a new college without a supporting alumni organization are the chief causes of the college closing, he said.

"It is a sad prospect, as this is an unusually beautiful and modern plant," Reilly said. "The three main buildings were completed in 1968, 1967 and 1960, and are very much attuned to today's educational and training needs."

Clark Center for Arts and Sciences, an 81,057 square foot building, was finished last year. Classrooms are ranged around the outer perimeter of the building, with seven inner groups of nine faculty offices and a conference room, a group for each discipline.

Spartan Pair Reported Off Their Rockers

EAST LANSING (AP) — Two Michigan State University students climbed wearily off their rockers Monday afternoon, sipped champagne, ate their first solid meal since last Wednesday and jointly claimed a new rocking chair record.

They rocked in separate chairs continuously from 4 p.m. Wednesday until 4 p.m. Monday for 120 consecutive hours. The stunt was an effort to collect funds for muscular dystrophy. They said about $1,300 was raised.

Phil Grant of Eau Claire, Mich., representing Phi Kappa Sigma social fraternity, and Hal Prentice of Flint, Mich., representing Phi Mu Alpha fraternity, claimed the record. Grant said it beats the former record of 104 hours which he said he set last May.

Phil Grant, of Eau Claire, representing Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity, also claims the former record of 104 hours of continuous rocking last May. Sharing the new record with Grant is Hal Prentice of Flint, representing Phi Mu Alpha fraternity.

The two went off their rockers on doctors' orders after an examination at the university hospital.

"We were exhausted, our blood count was low and we were freezing," Grant said. "We decided to get off together because we could have killed ourselves trying to beat each other."

"My back is aching," Grant admitted, "I have a sore throat and the weather has been freezing. Also, my temperature was about three degrees below normal."

He added there has been some adverse reaction about the competitors missing class and concern about their health.

Governor Picks New Law Aides

LANSING (AP) — Four appointments to the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice have been announced by Gov. William Milliken.

Milliken named Grand Rapids Mayor Chris J. Sonneveldt; Sterling Heights Police Chief Maurice D. Foltz; Noel Bufe, executive director of the Office of Highway Safety Planning; and James C. Killogg, an executive assistant to the governor.

Computer study is available in the math department; special facilities for tape-recording and audio-video study are in the language department; filtered air is piped to the biology department, Reilly noted.

Complete TV Studios Recognizing that today's youth is absorbed in films and television, Mackinac College planners included in a Creative Arts building a complete TV studio and theater which rivals a TV-network facility. The most complex lighting effects, sound controls, film editing and cutting rooms, developing rooms, rehearsal halls, costume and scenery departments are provided.

A 575-seat fully-equipped theater adjoins this building. Also completed last year is a beautiful group of 14 houses for the faculty. Named Lesley Court, the dwellings on the shore of Lake Huron resemble a small Danish village. They are near the marina and dock owned by the college.

The Peter Howard library, completed in 1966, is of excellent contemporary design, with space for 100,000 volumes, a main reading room 108 feet by 54 feet, classrooms, and other amenities.

Convention Center In finding a buyer for Mackinac College, Previews Inc. is contracting real estate brokers and investment firms across the U.S. Reilly emphasized that the excellent facilities could be easily converted into a magnificent hotel and convention complex, or a corporation-owned research, study and recreation center.

Other uses the real estate firm is investigating are conversion to a medical research or rehabilitation center, an Armed Services training station, and for the second campus of an established school.

Large lounges and assembly areas have lake views. Six dining rooms and a cafeteria handle a total of 1,000 diners, with equipped kitchens and a laundry for such service.

There are bedrooms for 650 students, a large number of apartments, and 10 staff houses in addition to Lesley Court. The 32 acres of the campus afford space for additional buildings or for extensive playing fields.

"Land of any kind is practically unobtainable on Mackinac Island," Reilly said. "Almost the entire island is in state parkland surrounding the many historical points of interest."

Shaggy Beard Causes Trouble For Teacher, 23

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A federal judge has taken under advisement a bearded art teacher's request for a permanent injunction to prevent the Chippewa Hills school district from firing him.

U. S. Dist. Judge Noel P. Fox gave no indication when he will announce his decision in the suit filed by Curtis Remington, 23.

Fox heard testimony Monday from school officials, including Supt. James P. Jorgensen. The school officials said several other teachers in the system have beards but kept them trimmed neatly.

Remington won a temporary restraining order last week reinstating him in his job. The teacher claims he was suspended Sept. 9 because of a 1½ to 2-inch beard he grew during the summer. Remington said he grew the beard because he thought it would show his individuality.

Paper Gold Is Trade Factor

By The Associated Press
Paper Gold: What and Why? What it is: "Paper gold" is the layman's term for Special Drawing Rights, a new type of international money to be issued by the International Monetary Fund and backed only by a general agreement to accept it. It will be good for settling accounts between the countries that accept it, just as gold is now-hence the name. It won't replace gold, but add to the total money supply.

Purpose: To increase the reserves, or usable money, available to finance international trade. World trade has been growing faster than world reserves, raising the possibility that commerce will slow down simply because there isn't enough money to pay for it.

Who will get it: The current plan is to issue $9.5 billion over the next three years—$3.5 billion next Jan. 1 and $3 billion at the beginning of 1971 and 1972. It will be distributed to participating nations in amounts roughly proportional to their economic importance. For the first year, this would be about $851.4 million for the United States, the largest, ranging down to $495,000 each for tiny Botswana and Lesotho in Africa, the smallest.

Status: The IMF's 112 governors—the finance ministers of each member country—are expected to approve distribution plans near the end of their annual meeting in Washington this week. Managing Director Pierre-Paul Schweitzer on Sept. 12 recommended allocation but the details had been worked out almost two months before by the 10 major Free World countries.
